

GERMANY ISSUES WARNING TO SHIPS OF NEUTRAL COUNTRIES

Washington, D. C., May 16.—Germany in a note presented to Secretary Lansing by Count Von Bernstorff, today, warns neutral governments that merchant ships flying neutral flags must obey the provisions of international law in regard to their conduct when stopped by a German submarine, and that they incur danger should they turn their ships in the direction of a submarine.

COLLAPSE OF AKRON RESTAURANT KILLS NINE

MANY INJURED ARE TAKEN FROM DEBRIS

Akron, May 16.—At least nine were killed and twenty-two injured here last evening when the Crystal restaurant, located in the old Beacon-Journal building, at Main and Quarry streets, its foundations weakened by the blasting in the excavation for the erection of a building just north of it, collapsed and slid into the huge hole in the ground.

Nine are known to be dead, all of them having been identified. Twenty-two lie injured in hospitals.

Three persons, one a man, the father of a child killed in the wreck, another man and a woman are missing.

Until late last night firemen and police, surrounded by a packed mass of citizens, who flocked to the scene from every corner of the city, worked in the wreckage hunting for other bodies of persons hurt. Then, with the search not yet abandoned, city and county authorities began an investigation. Sensational reports of the nearby blasting were received by Coroner Lyon and County Prosecutor Kennedy. An inquest will be held today and the grand jury, now in session, may begin an inquiry. The entire property loss in the disaster is estimated at $25,000.

Two hospitals were filled with the dead, dying and injured within two hours after the disaster. In one hospital are two men who went insane from the horror of their experience in the disaster. State, county and city probes of the collapse of the restaurant, were started Tuesday.

It was conceded by authorities that responsibility lay among building inspectors, and contractors excavating for the Jackson Block, adjoining the restaurant on the north, and Henry Green, salaried owner of the building.

The building, a one-story brick edifice, collapsed following the exploding of four dynamite blasts by employees of Franklin Brothers, contractors, who are doing the excavating. An official investigation will be required to determine the exact cause.

The blasting, authorities say, was the immediate cause, but they are not sure about the precautions taken by the dynamiters and the owners of the restaurant building.

The dead are:

Mary Lawson, 5, 476 Woodland avenue.

William C. Lawson, 33, father of Mary, 476 Woodland avenue, clerk in rubber office.

Miss Dorothy Kenyon, 20, 313 Rhodes avenue, clerk at the Western Union Tel. Co., formerly of Medina.

Mrs. Mary Gallup, waitress, formerly of Cambridge, Ohio. Body taken to Cambridge.

H. M. Roney, 30, 18 Eleanor Court, stenographer. Body taken to former home at Beverly, O.

Michael Welda, 18, waitress, formerly of Wadsworth.

Bernice Kline, 26, Mansfield, O.

C. A. Thompson, 30, Cincinnati, O., auditor for Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

Rev. James G. Thomas, 38, Camden, N. J.

500 EXPRESS DRIVERS STRIKE

Chicago, May 16.—Five hundred express drivers of seven express companies, struck today by the companies had dismissed drivers who joined the union. Police were detailed to guard farms and headquarters of the companies.

HUNDREDS STARVING RATHER THAN GIVE UP THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION

New York, May 16.—Suffering among Armenians in Turkey, Persia and Syria, is still intense and they are dying by hundreds for want of food and are in urgent need of aid, says a cablegram from Constantinople made public today by the American committee for Armenian relief. Conditions are so distressing that the Armenians are forced to eat grass, and yet despite these conditions, they continue to stick fast to their Christian faith, although a change to Mohammedanism would quickly relieve their plight. The number of non-combatants effected is one million. In making an appeal for aid, the committee says it now has reliable facilities for reaching the needy through American consuls and missionaries.

TRAIL OF DEATH LEFT BY A CRAZED MILLER

Rochester, Ind. May 16.—William Dollars, 30, a miller, shot and killed his mother, Mrs. Anna Dollars, 50 and daughter Agnes, 5; fatally wounded his son, George, 11, and baby Ida, 2, and then went to a nearby cemetery, where he killed himself on the grave of his wife. It is believed that the recent sudden death of Dollars' wife, caused insanity.

Mother Of Three Takes Own Life

Toledo, O., May 16.—Mrs. Rose Garvey, 36 years old, mother of three small children, died this afternoon after taking poison and shooting herself in the head. She was in ill health and despondent.

OVER EMBANKMENT

Clinton, Mo., May 16.—Five cars of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas passenger train known as the "Texas Special", southbound, overturned and rolled down a twenty foot embankment near here early today. None of the passengers was dangerously injured. A broken rail and defective ties were given as the cause of the wreck.

AMENDMENT WILL REMOVE UNDESIRABLE RESTRICTION

Washington, D. C., May 16.—To meet Japan's objection to having the so-called gentleman's agreement for the restriction of immigration enacted into law in the pending immigration bill, the senate immigration committee today agreed on an amendment which removes the Japanese restriction from the bill, but accomplishes Asiatic exclusion otherwise by a specification of latitude and longitude which will take in China, Siberia, India and the islands of the Malay Archipelago with the exception of the Philippines. It leaves immigration to be governed entirely by the Root-Takahara agreement. The change is understood to be satisfactory to the state department and Japan.

VETERANS TO MEET AT MARION

Marion, O., May 16.—Colonel George B. Christian, general chairman of the executive committee, has announced the complete program for the golden jubilee encampment of the Ohio G. A. R. and the Thirty-fifth annual gathering of the Sons of Veterans, department of Ohio, beginning here June 12.

The encampment parade will be held Thursday afternoon, June 15.

Among those speaking during the week will be United States Senator Warren G. Harding, Governor Frank H. Willis, General Isaac R. Sherwood, Commander-in-Chief F. R. Monfort, of the G. A. R., and A. E. Stephens, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans. Forty-five thousand visitors are expected.

TO PROBE SHOE INCREASES

Philadelphia, Pa. May 16.—The National Shoe Retailers Association, has called a conference of allied industries from all parts of the country to consider abnormal conditions making for an acute shortage of leather and shoe findings generally, as well as material price advances on shoes and the outlook for a real merchandise famine by fall.

ORPET ON TRIAL FOR MURDER OF HIGH SCHOOL GIRL

Chicago, May 16.—Examination of witnesses in the trial of W. H. Orpet, Wisconsin University student, charged with the murder of Marion Lambert, Lake Forest High school girl, late in February, was continued today at Waukegan. Three men were tentatively accepted as jurors yesterday, the first day of the trial.

Judge Charles H. Donnelly, before whom the case is being tried, expects to decide today whether Orpet's lawyers can examine 60 letters which passed between the accused and Miss Lambert.

Counsel for Orpet today sought to obtain access to a package of sixty letters written by Orpet to the girl.

Orpet's counsel contended that he should be permitted to read the letters before they were formally placed in evidence.

Argument over the letters interrupted the examination of witnesses.

CAR BARNS DESTROYED
Cincinnati, O., May 16.—Fire destroyed the car barns of the Cincinnati-Lawrenceburg and Aurora Traction Company at North Bend early today. Five large cars were burned with the building. The loss is about $20,000.

GERMANS BOMBARD FRENCH POSITIONS

Paris, May 16.—The bombardment of the French position in the Avocourt wood and about Hill 304 continues, according to the French official report issued today. A weak German attack with grenades northwest of Thiaumont farm was repulsed. In the Woevre shelling is proceeding along the sectors at Eix and Moulinville. On the rest of the front there is quiet.

EXPLOSION TOLL REACHES 14

Gibbstown, N. J., May 16.—At least 14 men were killed and about 30 injured in a terrific explosion at the Du Pont Powder Company, near here yesterday. The blast occurred in the building in which Trinitrotoluol is manufactured, and wrecked that structure and three others.

Some of the injured were taken to a hospital in Camden and other places, while about a score, who suffered minor wounds, were treated by physicians at the powder plant.

Carranza Agrees To Tentative Plan

(BULLETIN)
Washington, D. C., May 16.—General Carranza has agreed to show their ability to control the situation in Northern Mexico while American troops remain for the time being.

VILLA IS RAISING NEW ARMY, LATEST REPORT

Field Headquarters in Mexico, May 16.—(Via Wireless to Columbus, N. M., May 16.)—Francisco Villa has recovered from his wound and has been busy for some weeks attempting to raise a new army in the state of Durango, according to a story told here today by a Mexican, who was captured in the engagement at Ojos Azules, late in April.

Cavalrymen are riding hard on the trail of small bands of bandits in the vicinity of Rubio ranch, twenty miles from here, where three Villa bandits were slain by an American forage detachment, yesterday. It was reported there are about 50 in the band.

Julio Cardenas, one of those slain, wore clothing indicating that he possibly participated in the raid upon Columbus, N. M.

WEE MAN LEFT OUT OF FUNCTIONS

New York, May 16.—Husbands who accompany their wives to the general Federation of Women's Clubs beginning here next week, will be cared for by turning them over to the men's clubs of the city. The program at which husbands will be expected next week is an excursion to the Edison Electrical plant.

GERMAN FLEET IS REPORTED TO HAVE LEFT KIEL

London, May 16.—German activities on the Verdun front are being continued energetically east of the Meuse where the French positions in Avocourt wood and on Hill 304 are being subjected to an incessant bombardment.

There is a hint of possible developments of importance east of the fortress, on the French right flank, heavy shelling of the French lines in the Moulinville sector of the Woevre region being reported.

The only infantry activities mentioned in the afternoon official bulletin from Paris, was in the vicinity of the Thiaumont farm, northeast of the fortress, where a German hand grenade attack is declared to have been completely repulsed.

News is awaited as to further movements of the fleet of German battleships reported last night to have left Kiel for Riga. Petrograd recently has indicated an expectation that a powerful offensive by the Germans against the Riga-Devinsk front was in immediate prospect. Whether a sea operation is to be undertaken in conjunction with the land movement remains to be developed.

UNION OF METHODIST CHURCHES ENDORSED

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 16.—The unification of the Methodist Episcopal church and the Methodist Episcopal church, South, was endorsed almost unanimously by the Methodist General Conference today. The conference adopted the report of the committee on unification, which provides for further negotiations with the Southern church, paving the way for final action by the general conference of the Southern church in 1918 and by the Northern church's general conference in 1920.

HOUSE PASSES GLASS RURAL CREDIT BILL

Washington, D. C., May 16.—Rural credits legislation was a long step nearer enactment today because of passage by the house late yesterday of the Glass bill by a vote of 285 to 10. Difference between this bill and the bill already passed by the senate will be ironed out in conference.

Both measures would provide for a federal farm loan board and twelve land banks which would loan money to farmers at a six percent maximum rate through local land associations on mortgages running from five to 20 years.

These lands would make these mortgages basis for issuance of farm loan bonds. Under a rule limiting general debate to five hours and providing for a final vote Friday night, the house today began consideration of the administration shipping bill.

House Democratic leaders apparently are confident of the passage of the ship bill.

BAR LUXURIES

Rome, May 16.—The cabinet issued orders today prohibiting the importation of luxuries and bulky articles which are not of prime necessity, such as pianos and furniture.

Washington, D. C., May 16.—The net result of the military conferences at El Paso, today by Major General Scott to Secretary Baker has been to convince the Carranza government that the United States has no other purpose in its positions in Northern Mexico than to stamp out brigandage and as a consequence there exists substantially an unwritten understanding that the Carranza forces shall endeavor to demonstrate their ability to handle the situation as the necessary first step toward withdrawal of the American punitive expedition.

General Scott believes General Obregon is acting in good faith and that the border situation is less critical today so far as the American government is concerned.

To carry out his share of the plans General Obregon has agreed to occupy and police the Parral district scouring the mountainous regions to the west of that town in search of the remnants of Villa's followers.

He also agreed to establish a strong patrol line along the Mexican side of the Big Bend country to prevent incursions such as that at Glenn Springs and Bosuillas.

For that purpose General Obregon has ordered into those regions 10,000 troops under General Treño, said to be the most efficient field commander in the Carranza army. Advances to the war and state department indicate that the movements are being carried out promptly.

On their side General Scott and General Funston assured General Obregon that precautions would be taken by American command.

One good way for the friends of Bill Shakespeare to get back at that Chicago judge for deciding that Bacon wrote Bill would be to start the yarn that Bill wrote Bacon. I suspect there'd be about as much truth in one yarn as the other. I refuse to desert Bill in his extremity. Here's the weather for tomorrow:

Ohio—Partly cloudy and cooler tonight. Wednesday fair.

Kentucky—Fair and continued cool tonight and Wednesday.

West Virginia—Partly cloudy and cooler tonight. Probably showers in extreme east portion. Wednesday fair and cooler in east portion.

Inspect Plans Of New Culvert

Thomas Watkins and Charles Worley, county commissioners, and John J. Harper, county engineer, journeyed to Sciotoville Tuesday morning to inspect the plans and specifications of a culvert which the Chesapeake and Ohio Northern railroad has prepared to erect across the Harrisonville pike, near Sciotoville. The railroad company will continue their present culvert across the pike, forming a new bridge. The old bridge will be torn out at this point.

U. S. BORDER TOWNS SAFE OFFICIALS BELIEVE

Washington, D. C., May 16—American communities along the Mexican border now are safe from further raids similar to that at Guan Springs, administration officials were confident today. They indicated that with additional United States troops and national guardmen being distributed along the border, only a general Anti-American outbreak beyond the border, Carranza soldiers participating, could endanger American border towns.

This Happened In Boston. Teacher—Emerson, what is "spilling the beans?" Emerson—Slang, na'am, and vicious slang at that.

Teacher—I mean can you give me the definition of it?

Emerson—Yes, na'am. "Spilling the beans" in its best colloquial sense is the unpremeditated extemporaneous promulgating of information concerning which one should have been much more reticently inclined. — St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

WESLEY HALL FUND CONSTANTLY GROWS

The Wesley Hall Mission fund of $5,000 is steadily growing but there yet remains about fourteen hundred dollars to collect to make the campaign a complete success. Rev. J. E. Dibert, who inaugurated the campaign to raise funds to purchase a permanent home for the institution and to make certain necessary repairs, issued a call for one hundred volunteers to subscribe ten dollars each a few days ago. Since that time fifty persons have responded.

But in order that the campaign will be a complete success, fifty more citizens are asked to subscribe ten dollars each before Saturday. This will complete the fund and the property will be purchased and the repairs started. The Wesley Hall Mission is one of the best known charitable institutions in the city and the rapid growth in its activities has made it almost imperative that the home be purchased. Those desiring to assist the Mission are urged to phone Rev. J. E. Dibert. Those subscribing today are:

Beautiful Tribute Paid To "Mother" In Sermon Delivered By Rev. J. E. M'Guirk

Last Sunday Mother's Day was appropriately observed at Holy Redeemer church. The pastor, Rev. J. E. M'Guirk, paid tribute to "The Mother's Love" in the following remarks which were substantially made at both Masses.

There is a name ineffably sweet to our ears, a name which causes the heart to beat with tenderest emotions, a name which awakens long forgotten memories and fills our eyes with tears, the name of mother, and this because there is nothing more exquisite, more tender and more affectionate in this vale of tears than the heart of a mother.

Her devotion exceeds all other devotion. She needs no obstacle, no difficulties, and forgetful of herself will walk, if need be, through fire and water to rescue her children or save them from danger. Her beneficent influence is felt in all danger and exigencies of life; on the battlefield, in the storm at sea, by the young soldier lying wounded on the field, by the shipwrecked sailor, by the poor wanderer, an exile in foreign lands. If these have remained true to God and themselves their first cry is, "Oh, if only mother was here."

Oh! then unhappy he who does not understand what this word mother implies. Name forever fragrant with love that no words can describe. He who understands it not, cannot have known a mother's love and cure; can never have basked in the sunshine of her smile, the kiss that chased grief from his breast and tears from his eyes, nor his heart leaped for joy at the tender embraces that tell of brief absence now ended.

In the order of nature woman reaches the climax of her sex when, by the Creator, she has been raised to the incomparable dignity of motherhood. This exalted office makes her mediatrix between God and man. For the successful fulfillment of this responsible duty the Creator has designed to share His own divine love with the maternal heart. A mother is willing to sacrifice all she possesses to become co-operator with the Creator as mother in the propagation of the human race, handmaid of religion, builder of the home, state and society. Through these human agencies mother's love is diffused in a most wonderful manner, thereby knitting together into one family or brotherhood every child of the human race. No human or divine institution exists in which the power of mother's love is not felt in a beneficent way.

What Is Home Without A Mother?

What is home without a mother? What is the church or state or society without mother's love or influence? Is not a mother's love the very foundation, progress, prosperity, stability and perpetuation of these institutions? The state's very existence is imperiled by monster evil divorce, mother's love is still sovereign power to preserve blessed homes of the state and thus prevent the state from self destruction. Is not christianity and civilization within the borders of the state, preserved intact by mother's love?

In a word is it not mother's love which makes her peerless patriot and savior of the state? As long, therefore, as the home remains in its integrity, unity, and beauty, as long as mother is recognized as uncorrupted queen of home, so long shall state endure, religion and civilization flourish.

"The hand that rocks the cradle rocks the world." Well said. Love is the only power to make men good and great. All good and great men and women are the fruitage of mother's love. As the current life of the rose bush imparts itself to every leaf and petal and causes them to blossom into many beautiful roses, so the life current of a mother's love imbues life and virtues of every child of the family, from last to first, and forms them into beautiful characters.

Men and women of this type are easily most amiable and chosen to guide the manifold destinies of state and society.

Great as queen of the state, mother is no less whether she rules in the richest or poorest home. Her love endures amidst greatness as amidst lowliness, riches, or poverty, trials or suffering, health or sickness, plague or famine, peace or war, sorrows or death. "Shall a mother forget her love?" Eternal in its fidelity, it is immortal amid crush of empires or nations, reverses of fortune, or greatest miseries. The mother's love first began in Eden's cradle is finally crowned with glory in heaven. It is as sweet amidst all the vicissitudes of life as on the day when mother plighted her pure love as young bride. The proud mother of many children finds high favor with God and man, and so she is the real wealth of the church and state.

Under the influence of christianity mother's love was raised from the natural to the supernatural state, through christian wedlock instituted by the founder of christianity. The human love of mother was purified, sanctified and perfected by the Savior, who chose to be born of woman as mother, thereby becoming brother to all men, and by this one master stroke of God's wisdom and love, raised human nature to a state of greatness and dignified mother's love beyond the power of human mind or words to conceive or express. The world is led more by ideals than ideas. The love of christian motherhood reaches the climax of moral grandeur in the love of Christ's mother, who begot Him as Savior, who sacrificed Him upon the cross for the love and happiness of mankind. The love of Christ's mother is made peerless ideal and queen of mother's love.

Good Influence Of Day Cannot Be Lost

All the wealth of the world's respect, love and obedience and devotion is feeble tribute indeed to mother's love. How beautiful, appropriate and wholesome, therefore, that the citizens of the great state of Ohio devote one day of the year to give public honor to the mothers of this great civil realm. If only a flower, or word, or message gives feeble expression of filial love and gratitude to mother for countless sacrifices which she continually makes for home, state, church and society, its good influence cannot be lost. When the homes of this great state are vitalized by united, sacred and generous love of all mothers within its borders the commonwealth shall continue to flourish and prosper.

It is well for the sons and daughters of this state, its present citizenship, to impress the rising generation of the necessity and advantages of mother's love to all the institutions within the state, including its own very precious existence and endurance. Shall we forget mother? No! Never! Let the citizen rejoice to recall frequently the love of mother, who conceived and bore him for nine months in her pure bosom, who gave him birth amidst pangs of pain and joy, who nourished him at her breast, who caressed and kissed him, who opened his lips for the first time to lisp the names of Mother and God "Our Father," whose sweet voice sang him to happy slumbers, whose soft hand soothed his fevered brow and ministered to his many wants, whose sweet words inspired, encouraged and consoled him in all his endeavors, triumph or failure, who, finally, in the crisis of life, when the sorrows of death gather thick about his dying couch is ever ready to pour into his soul most consoling words and speak saddest of words, "farewell" to her dear child, on its journey to its happy eternal home. God bless all the mothers of this state. God bless all their homes. God bless all their sons and daughters. God bless, preserve and unite the love of all Ohio mothers to make our state one great, peaceful, happy and prosperous common home.

Says Woman's Beauty Depends Upon Health

Health and Vigor Necessitate Regulation of Organs of Elimination.

Skin foods and face creams and powders cannot make a woman beautiful because beauty lies deeper than that—it depends on health. In most cases the basis of health and the cause of sickness can be traced to the action of the bowels.

The headache, the lassitude, the sallow skin, and the lusterless eyes are usually caused by constipation. An ideal remedy for women, and one that is especially suited to their delicate organisms, is found in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild laxative compound, pleasant to the taste and free from opiates and narcotic drugs of every description. Mrs. Gertrude Jordan, 522 North Liberty St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "It is simply fine; I have never been able to find anything to compare with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I started using it for the baby and MRS. GERTRUDE JORDAN now it is my family standby in all cases where a laxative is needed." Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle; a trial bottle can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

KILLED 10 HOURS AFTER TAKING CAMP JOB

C. W. Allsbrow Falls In In Front Of Dinky Train, Death Result From Injuries

Death in tragic form came to C. W. Allsbrow, 39, brakeman on a dinky train in the Hunt-Forbes, C. & O. Northern Construction Camp near Harrisonville, Monday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock just ten hours after he had taken employment in the camp.

The fatal accident was one of the most distressing that has taken place in the C. & O. Northern camps for some time. Allsbrow fell under the wheels of the dinky cars and suffered injuries that resulted in death several hours later.

Allsbrow was riding on the end of a dinky car and when the train made a sudden stop he was thrown from his place on the car to the tracks. Before the train could be stopped several of the small cars had passed over his body. His right hip and right arm were crushed and his right side was badly bruised and he suffered internal injuries. His left foot was also severed.

Fellow employees rushed to his assistance and pulled his mangled body from underneath the cars. The company physician, Dr. J. F. York was called and he rendered first aid and sent in a call for Daehler's ambulance. The man died at eight o'clock, a short time before the ambulance arrived to convey him to Hempstead hospital.

The body was taken to Daehler's morgue and prepared for burial. The remains will be shipped to the unfortunate victim's home in Onawa, Wisconsin, where his parents reside.

Court Of Appeals Heard Local Cases Last Night

For the first time in several years, the local court room was the scene of court proceedings Monday evening. Judges Festus Walters, Francis Sayre and Mat-theu Merriman, of the court of appeals heard the following cases:

Announcements were made Tuesday by J. R. Clarke, director of the Board of Agriculture of Ohio, that W. S. Kelch, Columbus, special representative for the American Fertilizer Company, had

PLANS FOR N. & W. DEPOT ARE NOT DECIDED UPON

Absolutely no plans have been made for the new main passenger station of the N. & W. to be located at the foot of Houston hill and on either side of the Chillicothe pike and the sub-station which is to be built east of the Gallia street crossing, according to a statement made from an authoritative source, Tuesday.

N. & W. officials for sometime have had plans for a station to be built on either Offene street, Walker street, Gallia street or Lincoln street, but they have been passed up, it was stated today.

A switch in the plans of the N. & W. officials came so suddenly after the north end site was inspected and accepted that no time was had to prepare preliminary drawings.

While engineers of the N. & W. surveyed the proposed site of the main passenger terminal in the north end, Monday, no definite location has been decided upon.

"The handsome new depot may be built on the lower side of Chillicothe pike and it may be built on the upper side," was the statement made Tuesday by a gentleman, who is in close touch with every phase of the new depot proposition.

The fact that the N. & W. intends to erect a magnificent depot in the north end and a sub-station in the east end continues to be discussed from all angles by local citizens. The north end selection came as a decided surprise to practically everybody in the city.

It was stated Tuesday that the work of selecting a definite site on the north end ground would be made right away and as little time as possible is to be consumed in working out the preliminary details of the new depot proposition.

DENTIST PULLED OUT FISH EVEN IF HE WAS DUCKED

Four happy dentists left Portsmouth Monday afternoon for a quiet little fishing party along the banks of Brush Creek, near Rushtown and shortly after the hooks had been baited, Dr. E. C. Jackson, while standing upon the top of some old piling let out a shrill whoop and began pulling in his line. His companions, Drs. O. D. Donaldson, Frank Spencer and A. R. Nixon, hurried over and arrived just in time to see Dr. Jackson lose his balance and fall into the cold waters.

Dr. Jackson was not to be daunted by his bath for he climbed out, with teeth chattering, and hauled out a three pound fish.

Tried To Assault Wife

Rosa Ventura, a foreigner, of Ninth street, Earlytown, was arrested by Officer Good for attempting to assault his wife Tuesday morning. Ventura struck at his wife with a heavy board, but missed her.

Ventura's arrest appeared to greatly affect Mrs. Ventura's younger sister, for she wept bitterly as he was led away. When searched at police headquarters only a trifle over $1.50 was found in Ventura's pockets, but after returning from the cell room, where he locked up the man, Sergeant Smith found a bill-book on the court room floor which was found to contain $10 in paper money and a receipt, which proved to be Ventura's property. Ten minutes later he was heard pounding at the prison door. He excitedly reported his loss. He was purposely held in ignorance of the find until some time later, because of his act of deceiving the officers.

PLAN ELABORATE TIME ON THE OPENING TRIP OVER NEW TRACTION LINE

Every member of the Business Men's Association and the Board of Trade is urged to make the trip to Wheelersburg, Monday afternoon, May 22, when the new Ohio Valley traction line between Portsmouth and that village will be formally opened. The Business Men's association under whose auspices the trip will be made, is anxious to have every seat in the four special cars filled. There will be room for every member of both organizations.

Elaborate arrangements are being made by the citizens of Wheelersburg to entertain the local business men. An address of welcome will be given and a short musical programme is planned. Two hundred and fifty orange and black felt pennants have been ordered for the occasion by the committee in charge of the trip. These pennants will be distributed among the members. The first car, which will act as the pathfinder, will be gaily decorated with posters and banners. The other three cars will closely follow.

The specials will leave the Washington hotel, Monday afternoon at four o'clock, and will stop at scheduled places, as published in Monday's Times. Members of the organizations invited can board the cars any of these places. A band will be secured to entertain the party and a short stop will be made at Sciotoville, where the members will parade through the village enroute at the new Chesapeake and Ohio Northern railroad bridge.

On reaching Wheelersburg, the visitors will be served a luncheon at a nominal charge by the ladies of the Wheelersburg churches. The band will give a short concert then the return trip will be started.

The opening of the new traction line between Portsmouth and Wheelersburg marks an era of new prosperity. It permanently links the rural district in that vicinity with Portsmouth. It gives frequent passenger and freight service between the two places.

The invitations to members of the two organizations were mailed Tuesday by R. E. Thomas, secretary of the Business Men's association.

Ohio Woman Recovers After Stomach Torture

Mrs. Nora Britton is well known in Coldwell, O., where she has lived for some time. Her many friends, who know the suffering she has endured from stomach trouble are marveling at the sudden and astonishing improvement in her condition.

Mrs. Britton credits her good fortune to a trial of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and describes her experience as follows:

"For four years I suffered, no one knows what. I had six doctors but received no benefit. One said it was catarrh of the stomach, another recommended an operation. I had given up all hope when I saw an advertisement of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and decided to try it. Thank God, relief came at last. I can't say enough for it. I am pleased and thankful. I am recommending it to every person I meet, suffering with this ailment."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory, money will be returned.

BAILEY RELIEF CORPS NOTICE

The regular meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps was held Monday at the usual place.

Plans for Memorial Day were discussed and the Corps will cooperate with the G. A. R. in observing these days.

When the G. A. R. committee complete and publish their plans members of the Woman's Relief Corps will please take notice and be governed accordingly.

An invitation from the Sons of Veterans was received and accepted, and Bailey Relief Corps will meet at G. A. R. hall at 7 o'clock p. m. sharp to join the G. A. R. and S. O. V. in the celebration of G. A. R. Day, Tuesday, May 23rd at the high school auditorium.

Due notice will be given in the paper as to time and place of the Sabbath memorial services, also time and place for receiving and preparing flowers for the usual decoration of soldiers' graves in Greenlawn cemetery.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, May 16.—Today's trading lacked the breadth and activity of the previous day and was under the additional handicap of continuous realizing and liquidation.

Specialties, particularly the war group and motor issues, were in further demand on the renewal of trading today. Dealings were active and diversified with free absorption of large individual offerings. Gains of 1 to almost 2 points were registered by Crucible Steel, Studebaker, Westinghouse, Industrial Alcohol, American Zinc and National lead, while Willys-Overland scored a new high record on its four point advance to 276. Mexicans also were strong, American Smelting rising. New York Central, Canadian Pacific, Baltimore and Ohio, Erie, Norfolk and Western and U. S. Steel gained substantial fractions. Profit taking in enlarged volume contributed to the irregular reactions of the first hour, leading rails, U. S. Steel and some of the prominent specialties falling under yesterday's final prices. The reversal was checked in part by advances in other parts of the list, Mercantile Marines regaining some of the recent losses and with a further advance in Crucible proving strong offsetting features. To observers, however, the character of the market assumed a more professional tone. Indications of renewed foreign liquidation of international issues were not lacking. Bonds were steady. Industrial Alcohol and shares of the cotton carriers were active and strong in the final hour, when leading issues made up part of their mid-day declines. The closing was irregular.

Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 3/4c lower, with July at $1.15 1/2 to $1.16 and September at $1.16 to $1.16 1/2, were followed by a decided upturn all round. The close was firm, 3/4 to 1 1/2 not higher with July at $1.17 1/2 and September at $1.17 1/2 to 1 1/2.

Corn hardened with wheat. At first, however, the market lacked support. After opening 3/4 to 1/2 off to 3/4c up, prices scored a general net gain. The close was firm 1/4 to 3/4 not higher.

Commission house buying put some firmness into oats. Values seemed to depend almost wholly on the action of other grain. Provisions went down grade with hogs. Demand was only of a scattering character.

Do You Keep Your Money Busy?

Is your money lazy? Does it lie around month after month earning 2 or 3 per cent, or nothing at all, when it might be finding a safe and legitimate way to earn 7%? You are quick enough to recognize the value of a man who is energetic and alert, and you know that he is worth three or four times as much as one who is lazy and indolent. But are you equally keen to appreciate the excellence of money that goes out into the world and keeps moving until it finds a safe berth where it can earn 7%?

Do you know that one of the safest and most convenient ways for your money to earn 7% is to buy the kind of industrial preferred stock we have been selling for twelve years? Do you know that you can verify this fact through any bank or commercial agency in Stark County, where our principal office is located? If you do know these things and your funds continue to idle along at 2 or 3 per cent, is there anyone but yourself to blame?

Perhaps you will say that you do not have time to make a study of investments. This is probably true. It is also true of more than 10,000 men and women, residing in thirty-five states, who have learned to rely on our recommendation in making their investments. During the past twelve years they have bought nearly $20,000,000, par value, of preferred stocks from us without the loss of a dollar of principal or income.

If you have $100 or more that should be put to work, send us your name and address today, and we will send you a booklet describing the 7% cumulative preferred stock of The Central Steel Company. This booklet contains financial statements and other accurate information which we place at your disposal, without expense or obligation, as part of our service to those who have money to invest.

The boat will have a landing on the Morris Biggs farm on the Kentucky side of the river.

Cooper Bros., a Gallia street grocers, have erected a large hardware sign in front of their store.

The street committee of council has been ordered by council to have "slow down speed" signs erected in different parts of the village. All violators of the traffic laws will be prosecuted.

The street sweeper ordered several months ago from the Studebaker Vehicle Company, of South Bend, Ind., arrived Monday. Council has also purchased a street sprinkler, the Essman Bros.' water wagon being obtained several days ago. Several dump wagons and gutter scrapers are all that is needed to make the street cleaning department fully equipped.

Rev. F. G. Hamilton, pastor of Grandview Avenue Christian church, will fill the pulpit at Wednesday evening's prayer service at the Christian church.

Schmidt-Walkins, plumbers, have a large force of men at work installing the sanitary toilet and drinking fountain equipment in the Stanton avenue school building. A lighting system will be put in the auditorium before commencement day.

NEW BOSTON COUNCIL

Council met in regular session Monday evening with all members present. W. Harr attending his first meeting in several months. He had been seriously ill for sometime.

Bills and estimates amounting to about $1300 were allowed. A bill from the city of Portsmouth for water used in the watering trough on Gallia pike was considered unreasonable and was ordered held up.

An ordinance has been passed fixing $5 as the amount to be charged for a sanitary sewer tap.

Oscar Coburn, Sr., chairman of the street committee, reported water standing in the gutter and on the sidewalk in front of the Webb property on Rhodes avenue. Mr. Coburn was instructed to notify Mr. Webb to have the water piped to a sewer. Coburn also reported that council met with Coles Peebles of the Peebles Realty company and that they came to no new agreement on the grade of Gallia pike through Peebles addition. Member Harris was in favor of making the cut according to the first plans. After arguing on the question for an hour it was decided to have Engineer Kinley make a new plat of a two percent grade through Peebles addition and do away with 11 feet of 12 foot proposed cut on the north side of the pike.

The vote ended in a tie, Essman, Harris and Hurley voting for the cut as first planned. Mayor Davis voted in favor of making the change to a two percent grade which carried the motion.

Council then entered into a lengthy discussion on the "bad brick" matter. Mayor Davis, council and Engineer Kinley not favoring the kind of brick being used in paving. They claim that No. 1 brick are not being used and that the contract-calls for No. 1 brick. Member Coburn said that he had gone over the brick laid on Center street and said that he thought the village was being imposed upon in not receiving the quality of brick specified in the contract. While council discussed the brick question from various angles no action was taken.

The matter of establishing a road and grade to the ferry landing at the foot of West avenue was left to Engineer Kinley who will work the matter out with steel plant engineers.

An ordinance for the issuing of $4,000 worth of bonds to cover the cost of grading Maple street and building the street across the upper end of Millbrook lake to School Land Hollow addition was defeated when four members voted against it. A resolution for the annual budget asking for the following amounts was passed: General fund, $1000; public health fund, $145; safety fund, $1800; service fund, $5000; interest and sinking fund, $6400.

Mayor Davis reported that a number of complaints had been made about street cars not making half way stops between Ohio avenue and Vine street and Vine street and Center street, these stops being made on Gallia street. The matter was referred to the clerk. Samples of fire hose were presented by Otto Lauffer. A motion was made referring the purchase of fire hose to the fire committee. The matter of buying tires for the fire truck was also referred to the fire committee.

A Conquest In Ten Days

By ALAN HINSDALE

"Alec, I'm engaged."
"The deuce you are?"
"Yes, I became engaged the day before yesterday."
"And the reaction has set in?"
"What reaction?"
"Why, I was engaged once myself. For awhile I was in heaven. Then I began to think of what I'd done, and I was in the other place."
"That's me exactly."
"Can't you get out of it?"
"How?"
"I made the girl mad, and she shook me."
"Good plan. I'll try it on."
Alec Broadhead didn't see his friend, Andy Pelham, for a week. When they met again Pelham wore a shamed look.

"Well?" queried Alec.
"I tried your plan and succeeded admirably. But I couldn't stand the racket. I went back to her and told her that if she wouldn't forgive me I'd jump in the river."
"More fool you."
"Oh, you'd have done the same thing if you'd have been really in love."
"Not on your life."
Not long after Andy had been married Alec received a note from him saying that he must spend some time away from home on business and would Alec look out for his wife evenings during his absence. She would be lonely between 8 and 10 p. m. Alec replied that he supposed he would have to accommodate him.

When Mr. Broadhead called on Mrs. Pelham he found her sitting in a cozy room beside a light with a pink shade doing some fancy work. She was a pretty woman and received him with a pleasant smile. It occurred to him that perhaps his friend in marriage had not been such a fool after all. He passed a very pleasant evening and at 10 o'clock bade the lady adieu and went to his club.

Mrs. Pelham had told him to come every evening he chose during her husband's absence, but on an account so feel compelled to come. He had intended to remain away the second evening and after dining at his club tried to compose himself to spending the evening there. The effort was a failure. At ten minutes after 8 he rang the Pelham doorbell. "There sat the lady beside the pink light playing needle, and the scene was even more attractive than the evening before.

"How good of you," said the hostess, "to deprive yourself of all your latter pleasures to come to this dull house to oblige your friend. You men stand by one another splendidly. Women won't sacrifice themselves for a chum as men do."

"You" was the laconic reply.
It is quite likely that Alec Broadhead could have visited Mrs. Pelham possibly for years without disarranging his self by falling in love with his friend's wife had she behaved with the discretion required of a married woman. But she did not. Alec by a great effort succeeded in cutting out the third evening, remaining away from her. When he called on the fourth he pointed, but he expressed a great deal to Alec. At that rate it influenced him when he told her at 11 o'clock, she giving him her hand at that time to hold it just a little longer than was advisable under the circumstances.

He called the very next evening and found her on a lounge covered with a silken quilt, evidently indisposed.
"I'm so glad you have come," she said, pressing the hand he gave her and looking up at him tenderly. "I'm not feeling well and would not like to be alone."

Alec's countenance was full of sympathy, and his eyes reflected the tenderness with which she had favored him. He smoothed her pillow half a dozen times during the evening, took her hand for the purpose of feeling her pulse and otherwise played the attentive nurse. Though it would seem that Alec did not leave her till the clock struck 12.
"Ten days—or, rather, ten evenings—of this sort of thing may seem a short time for a man's sense of honor to be friend to be undermined, but it was enough for the purpose in this case. Alec was one evening leading her over the lady in the laughing fashion of a lover when the door was suddenly thrown open, and Andy, followed by a lady, stepped into the room.

"Well, I like that," he said to Alec. "I leave my chum to keep my wife from being lonely, and what does he do?"
"Now, Andy," said the lady who had entered with him, "this has gone far enough. Mr. Broadhead, I'm Mrs. Pelham. This young lady is my friend Miss Midge."

"Midge, Meriwether?" interrupted Andy. "The worst girl in America. We've put up a job on you, old man. I told these ladies how you felt about women, and she let her could bear you down within ten days. I haven't been away at all, but upstairs every evening that you've been here speaking with Midge."

"The expression on Alec's face was study. There were shame, relief and the dawn of happiness."
"All I have to say," he finally remarked, "is that Miss Meriwether won the bet."

This was Miss Meriwether's conquest. She married Alec Broadhead.

Pastor Not Surprised Girl Went Into Trance, Explains His Religion

Rev. Arthur Caudill, pastor of the Pentecostal church, was not present when a 12-year-old Stewardsville girl named Bailey went into a trance at the Front street mission Sunday night, but plain-ly indicates he would not have been in the least agitated over it. "It is nothing uncommon save in later day Christian life," said Rev. Caudill, Tuesday, when asked to account for persons becoming thus affected. "Perhaps she was carried away as was St. John when he was banished to the Isle of Patmos," said he in offering an explanation for the Bailey girl's act. The revelations tell of him in turning to see the voice that spoke with him and that he saw in the midst of the seven candle-sticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. "And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, 'Fear not; I am the first and the last.'"

Rev. Caudill then recalled that the Apostle Paul when the Lord had warned him to keep away from Jerusalem was similarly affected as seen by scripture Acts 22:17 verse. "And it came to pass, that when I was once again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance."

The Pentecostal minister said his own wife had a several hours trance some years ago. He said it would do some people a world of good to read the new testament and they would not feel surprised over visions and trances. He said he is besieged so often with inquiries regarding the teachings and beliefs of his church that he summarized the same in the following statement:

"We of the Church of Christ, commonly called the Pentecostal church believe the Bible, every word of it; we believe in salvation as something that people get directly from God when they make an unconditional surrender of themselves to Christ and we believe that the signs follow the real thing just as Jesus said they would in Mark 16:17 to 19. We believe that people obtain real results from the religion of Jesus Christ in the present life. We don't think much of a delusion of the mind or historical knowledge of Christ. We believe in a Christ that becomes a living personality in the every day life of the Christian. We believe that the Holy Ghost is a real person and that he lives in and talks through the true children of God. We believe in the gifts of the Spirit as found in the twelfth chapter of the Corinthians. We believe that the Christian must abstain from all worldly amusements, such as shows, street fairs, dances, parties, excursions, etc., and that he must cleanse himself from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, such as the use of tobacco, telling filthy tales, idle jesting, etc. We believe in salvation that cleans one up from the sole of their feet to the crown of their head and from center to circumference and puts a man just crosswise to the general trend of this old world and we believe that the real children of God are despised and rejected today as His only begotten Son was nineteen hundred years ago as Jesus said they would be."

Rev. Caudill said he had received an indirect challenge from Rev. Wiggins of the Christian Conference of Kentucky for a debate and that he would gladly accommodate him at any time and any place.

The new Pentecostal church at Sixth and Broadway, constructed of concrete blocks, is now ready for the roof, and should be ready for occupancy within two weeks.

COUNTY NEWS

Lucasville high school has a rural record of which to be proud. Two years ago the girl graduates made their own dresses for commencement. They were the first girl graduates of a rural high school in the United States to make their commencement dresses. Prof. Graham of Ohio State University came down and took a picture of the girls and had lantern slides made which he sent to every agricultural college in the United States. The girl graduates this year have emulated the example of their sister graduates and will wear frocks made by their own hands.

Prof. Frank S. Alley and his assistants in the Valley township high school at Lucasville are paying special attention to the manual training department in the high school. The boys are working hard and have almost completed a library set which is to be exhibited at the State Fair in Columbus. Prof. Alley said Monday that he expected the Lucasville boys to carry off all honors in the rural exhibits at the fair. The boys have made special tables and cabinets used in the domestic science, manual training and chemistry departments.

The Wheelersburg Baptist church was well filled Sunday evening when John Van Gorder of the First Baptist church, Portsmouth, delivered a special sermon appropriate to "Mother's Day." The sermon contained many beautiful tributes to "Mother." Special music was furnished by Lorin Cunningham, Dan Van Gorder, Wade Quillen and Edward Carmack of the First Baptist church. The young men rendered several quartet numbers and Mr. Van Gorder rendered a beautiful solo.

Dorothy Simon of Pond Creek, is spending her summer vacation with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bihlman, Jr., of the Boulevard.

Prof. Frank S. Alley, superintendent of the Valley township schools, was in the city on business, Monday.

George Williams, shoemaker, of Sixth street, has moved to the old Bihlman homestead on the Boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. Williams have been in ill health for some time and expect to improve by taking a home in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bihlman, Jr., of the Boulevard, celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary Sunday. Only members of the immediate family were entertained at a 12 o'clock dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Montavan of the West Side spent the week end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bihlman, Jr., on the Boulevard.

The Senior class of the Lucasville high school will be banqueted tonight in the high school building by the Junior Class. A splendid program has been arranged and one of the best Junior-Senior banquets in the history of the school is expected.

The Valley township schools will close Friday.

Jake Hill and family, of the West Side, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hill, of the West Side and G. P. Denning and family, of Pond Creek, visited Mr. and Mrs. William George at Sciotoville, Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Givens, of McGaw, and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dixon, motored to Otway Sunday to view the big fire ruins.

Florence, young daughter of Jack Hager, of Slab Run, was brought home Monday from Hempstead hospital, where she was operated upon for mastoid trouble.

Miss Sadie Turner, of Pond Creek, has as a guest, Miss Mayme Philippi, of Portsmouth.

Mrs. Sherman Smith of 112 Bond street, Portsmouth, is the guest of friends at Harrisonville this week.

Stockham & Payne, general storekeepers at Harrisonville are moving from the east side of Main street in that village to the large new John Addis building on the west side, which they have leased.

All arrangements have been completed for the seventeenth annual commencement of the Valley township high school which will be held Thursday evening, May 18, at the Lucasville M. E. church at eight o'clock. Bode's Orchestra will furnish the music.

The class this year consists of three girls and two boys. The class motto is "We Finish To Be." The class colors are blue and gold. These colors have been carried out in the neat invitations which are being sent out. The white invitation is embellished with gold lettering and tied with a blue cord. The yellow rose is the class flower. The graduates are Ruth Irene McIntyre, Florence Ora Cockrell, Hazel Belle Clark, Walter Dean McCarty, Samuel Ora Slavens. The faculty consists of Prof. Frank S. Alley, superintendent; Louis A. McKinley, principal; Leonore Feaser and Anna Thomas.

Prof. John H. Cook, assistant state superintendent of public instruction, who is to deliver the class address, is a Scioto county "boy." He was born in this county and taught for some years in the Wheelersburg school. He was county examiner and later entered and graduated from Antioch college. He was county superintendent of Pickaway county and was then made assistant state superintendent. Following is the commencement program:

STAR YARD
The Sunday school gave a very nice program in honor of Mothers' Day, after which the Rev. J. T. Olmstead preached, talking for his subject "Mother." He touched upon some fine points along that line. The Sunday school will hereafter meet in the morning at 9 o'clock instead of afternoons.

Mrs. Joe Latt of South Portsmouth, Ky., spent the day with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Butler. Clarence, the 7 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walker was poisoned recently on ice cream.

Lee Titus has taken the place of Jake Willet the night engineer, who was burned by a steam pipe breaking at the brick plant recently.

Reuben Mullens is planning to spend a few days fishing. Rev. Olmsted will preach at the school house on Sunday night, May 21, at 7 o'clock. School at this place will close this week.

Victim Is Better

Alfred Blanton, the eight-year-old boy near Lucasville, who was seriously injured Sunday morning when a dynamite can, with which he was playing, exploded and tore four fingers from his left hand, is reported to be improving. The lad is now under the care of a nurse at the County Infirmary.

NEW PENCIL "PUSHER"

William Dupre, West Side young man, was appointed reporter for the Transcript, the official newspaper for the students of the Ohio Wesleyan University. Mr. Dupre is a student at the college.

PLAN FINE TIME FOR THE S. S. SCHOLARS

The several hundred scholars of the Junior department of Second Presbyterian church will be entertained in the basement of the church tonight by the teachers of the Junior department. There are about fourteen teachers in this section of the Bible School. Besides the games for boys and girls Virgil Jones, magician, Harry Porter, local comedy artist, a quartet and W. W. Gates, superintendent of the Sunday School will be present to help render a delightful and entertaining program after which refreshments will be served.

Boy Scout News

Indian Day Program.

The scouts of troop 8 held a splendid meeting last night, in which they celebrated "Indian Day." Essays and readings on Indian life were given, with special music by Messrs. Swearingin and Kahl. The chief feature of the evening's program was an address by Marion Garrison, entitled, "What the Scout Learns from the Indian." Harold Bierly was elected scribe. One new member, Denver Dougherty, was received. Harold Dunn was appointed by the scoutmaster to bear greetings from Troop 8 to the new troop 12 at their dedicatory exercises on Thursday evening.

Dedicatory Exercises

Troop 12 will be officially received into local scouting Thursday as a recognized scout troop. The exercises will be held at the home of Scoutmaster Clare Guffy on Offshore street. Every troop will send a representative bearing greetings. A fine program has been arranged for the occasion.

Troop Seven Meeting.

Troop 7 will meet Wednesday evening at 6:30 at the Central Presbyterian church. At the last meeting the following officers were elected for one year: Homer Pressler, scribe; Donald Matthews, treasurer; Howard Peters, patrol leader; Howard Kahl, corporal.

ers not to dispose their forces so as to embarrass the operation of the Mexican troops and also that the border patrol on the American side would be strengthened.

A new plan for patrolling the border has been recommended by General Funston. He proposed a corps of forty-eight motor cycles, thirty tandem and 18 single machines. Secretary Baker said today he would probably approve the plan. Use of motor cycles would enable the patrols to cover much more quickly and more often a long section of boundary, particularly in isolated districts and also enable officers to receive reports more expeditiously from small outposts.

Kingsville, Texas, May 16—Jose M. Morin, former Villa army officer and alleged leader of a proposed uprising of Mexicans in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, now in jail here, probably will be taken to San Antonio tomorrow for a preliminary hearing, according to United States officers.

Twenty-seven men in all, it was said today, are held in jail here in connection with the alleged plot. Arrests continue in the cases, according to federal officers, and it is believed all of the leaders in the movement will be arrested before tonight. The proposed outbreak, it is alleged, originally was set for May 8. Later it was postponed until May 10, but before this date Morin was arrested.

IRISH GIRL

man named Monteith, who is still at large, landed at Tralee.

Sergeant John Heane, of the Royal Irish Constabulary, who arrested Casement near Tralee, said that, accompanied by Sergeant Riley, he searched the country around at length found in the old fort "a man"—the prisoner in the dock—the tall Casement.

In the cross examination of Heane it was disclosed that Casement had objected strongly to being questioned and did not submit until one of the constables leveled a rifle at him. On the way to a station he dropped a roll of papers which the police recovered.

After the hearing had been in progress for some time Casement turned his attention from the testimony to the writing of a long statement. While thus engaged he showed marked emotion for the first time since the hearing began. He wept quietly as he worked away with his pencil. It was a striking change from the smiling and self-confident man of a short time before.

The most interesting testimony of the day was the story of the fate of the German ship Aud, which was sent out from Kiel with arms and ammunition to fulfill in part promises of assistance said to have been made by the Germans. The Aud was held up on suspicion off the west coast of Ireland not far from Tralee by the British naval patrol ship Bluebell and was being taken to Queenstown when she was sunk by her own crew. Details of the capture and sinking were given by Sidney Waghorn, a signal man on the Bluebell.

UNION OF

The report recommends the amalgamation of the branches of American Methodism with the general conference as the supreme governing body of the church and with separate conferences and Episcopal supervision for the negro churches.

The report was adopted amid scenes of unbounded enthusiasm. Only one speech was made in favor of the action and none in opposition. Rev. John P. Goucher, president emeritus of Goucher College, Baltimore, Md., in moving the adoption of the report emphasized the fact that the proposed amalgamation would be a federated union that would protect all the varied interests just as the federal government protects the interests of the separate states, but in the case of federated Methodism the world and not the nation would be under denominational control.

When Dr. Goucher concluded, the pent up enthusiasm of the conference burst its bounds, every one rose to his feet, the building shook with applause and shouts of "Vote."

At the call for affirmative votes, virtually the entire convention rose and when the opposition was called for, only one or two scattered delegates stood up. Renewed cheering and applause greeted the announcement that the report had been adopted, and as Bishop E. H. Hendrix, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, stepped to the speaker's desk and clasped hands with Bishop Cranston, the presiding officer, the convention spontaneously began singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," and followed with "Blest be the tie that binds."

Bishop Cranston was greatly affected by the demonstration.

Bishop Hendrix said: "As senior bishop of American Methodism, I believe that by our action today we have accomplished more for the good of mankind than resulted for the battle of Saratoga."

THE SENATE REJECTS RUBLEE FOR FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Washington, D. C., May 16—Reconsideration of the vote by which the senate late yesterday refused to confirm George Rublee, of New Hampshire, as a member of the Federal Trade Commission, was discussed as a possibility today by supporters of the nomination. Senator Hollis, of New Hampshire, who led the fight in behalf of confirmation, is in a position to move for reconsideration since he changed his vote in order that he might do so.

VESSELS COLLIDE

New York, May 16—The Swedish steamer Grekland, limped in at quarantine this morning with a hole in her port side above the water line under the poop, resulting from a collision off Sandy Hook with the Italian steamer San Giovanni. The mishap occurred about midnight in a thick fog while both vessels were outward bound from this port. The San Giovanni is anchored outside the harbor, apparently not badly damaged.

AIR TANK EXPLODES

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 16—The residents of St. Bernard were aroused from their beds early today by the noise of an explosion sufficiently heavy to break windows and shake houses. Without warning the air reservoir tank at the water works plant had exploded. The water works building damage is estimated at $5,000. Name was injured.

WESTINGHOUSE STRIKE BELIEVED OVER

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 16—Labor conditions in the Pittsburgh district were much improved today when practically all the striking workmen at the plants of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company in East Pittsburgh returned to work and enough men entered the shops of the Pressed Steel Car Co. to warrant the statement by the management that the strike was over.

ION-O-LEX

Stops Inflammation

Ion-o-lex is probably the most remarkable discovery that has been made in the field of medicine in fifty years.

It ranks in importance with the discovery of anaesthetics or with the development of the use of antiseptics.

Ion-o-lex is not a drug. It contains no narcotics or opiates and is perfectly harmless. Its action is entirely mechanical and it only does one thing. It stops inflammation.

Anywhere that inflammation occurs. In Neuritis or Acute Rheumatism. In Tonsillitis, Bronchitis or Pneumonia.

In Croup, Coughs, Colds or Catarrh.

In Eczema or Erysipelas. In burns, wounds, bruises. Anywhere that there is inflammation—ion-o-lex stops it.

I used for years by most prominent physicians in England and in English Military Hospitals.

Guaranteed not to fail.

Ion-o-lex Liquid for internal use—ion-o-lex Unguent for external use.

Two Auto Parties Meet With Minor Difficulties

A Sunday picnic party was spoiled by two small automobile accidents in which none of the party received any serious bruises. In the party were Dr. Chellis H. Dawson, Fred Beaudoin, Allen Copelan in the Dawson Overland roadster and Mrs. Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Jones, Mrs. Allen Copelan and Miss Clemia Heydenreich in a Ford touring car driven by Mrs. Dawson. Dr. Dawson's machine went into a hole on the side of the pike east of Seatonville and bent the front axle. A little farther on the other party came to brief with a "blow out." Clinton Daniels happened along in his Studebaker touring car and brought the party to their homes. The damaged cars were brought to city garages for repairs. Miss Heydenreich and Mr. Beaudoin are members of the Palace Players showing at the Sun theatre.

Flush Your System Before Breakfast. Feel Better Right Away.

Can YOU "WHISTLE"

You should understand the importance of keeping the system clean. Dirt on the skin is not absorbed into the blood but the sour waste in the bowels is taken up by the blood and is the cause of most of our ailments.

When you are constipated the waste from your food lies in your bowels and sours, giving off gas and poison which causes your headaches, blotchy, pimply skin, foul breath and coated tongue.

Keep your system clean with Tollo Water, then your food will go into a fresh, clean stomach and be digested without distress. The nourishment will be extracted and sent clean and fresh to every nerve and muscle.

Modern physicians prescribe Tollo Water instead of drugs because it acts in Nature's Way. Every year they send thousands of sufferers from Constipation, Stomach and Liver troubles to Dawson Springs, Kentucky, to drink it just as it comes from the ground. It cleans and refreshes the system without irritation.

For a few cents your druggist will sell you a large bottle. You should start tomorrow morning by pouring out about a third of a tumbler of Tollo Water and filling the glass with plain water, and drink it before breakfast. After the first glass you will experience that clean, refreshed feeling inside and by keeping it up you can banish constipation and stomach trouble clean out of your life.

PLANS ARE SET ON FOOT TO BUILD COUNTRY CLUB

Meeting Was Held On Monday Evening At The Elk Parlors

At a meeting, attended by 25 Haldeman, chairman; Alan N. Jordan, Harry E. Taylor, William M. Briggs and Mark W. Selby. These gentlemen are to represent Portsmouth. For Ironton, William Crawford and A. L. Stecco were named.

This committee was authorized to prepare general plans, get details in shape, appoint sub-committees on membership, soliciting subscriptions and location of grounds. This done a general meeting of Portsmouth and Ironton citizens interested will be called and the plans decided upon laid before them for consideration and final approval.

The meeting Monday evening was called to order by L. P. Haldeman, who, with Ferris Hamilton and Nelson Whitaker has been investigating the possibilities of a Country Club for some weeks. Mr. Haldeman briefly outlined the object of the meeting as being to discuss a plan for building and financing a Country Club, should it meet with favor and then turned the meeting over to Edward T. Reed, president of the Golf Club. Mr. Reed, in assuming the chair, expressed his hearty approval of a Country Club. He said that the present Golf Club membership was a unit in favor of it, and would do all in their power to help make it a success. He believed that the time was ripe for such a club, and from what he had heard, felt that Ironton would join heartily in pushing it to a successful conclusion.

DR. HUNT'S APPEAL

Dr. Hunt urges corn sufferers to avoid delays and experiments and to use his dependable penetration method to forever remove sore, stubborn corns. It is absolutely unnecessary to suffer another minute. Any druggist will supply you with a 25c box of Dr. Hunt's new corn cure—the most effective and reliable remedy for giving almost instant relief. It is simple and easy to use. It soothes and heals. Thousands have used it this season with remarkable results.

feasibility of a Club. There was no dissenting opinion, all being in favor of it, and all believing that it could be financed and kept going in good shape. As stated before the consensus of opinion was that the Club should be located between Portsmouth and Ironton and as convenient as possible to both cities; should be located on a paved roadway and convenient to a traction line. It was also the opinion that the Club buildings and arrangements should be on a modern scale so as to give conveniences customary in clubs of the character in other cities and make it a social center for the two cities.

The tentative plan calls for an expenditure of $25,000 and it is planned to incorporate for that amount, with $50 shares of stock. Each member shall own at least one share, and while it is expected that there will be subscriptions for larger amounts, voting will be limited to individuals, rather than to shares. Mr. Haldeman stated that some preliminary investigation as to sites had been made, and while no decision had been made in advance of more thorough inquiry, option had been taken on one site available, near the intersection of the Ironton and Powellsville road, in order to protect the Club in case it met with approval. This location is on the north side of the main pike to Ironton and commands a beautiful view of the country surrounding. There are 85 acres in the tract. Other sites will also be given consideration and final decision will not be made until later.

Another meeting will be held soon upon call of the chairman of the Organization committee, and it is hoped to have a very large attendance to hear the report of this committee and of the various sub-committees that will in the meantime be named.

WOODMEN PLANNING TO INITIATE 1500 CANDIDATES

Roy McElhenny, district state manager of the Woodmen of the World, returned to Portsmouth Monday evening from Columbus, where he attended an interesting meeting of the Columbus Boosters' Club. Arrangements were made at this meeting for the state-wide class initiation, which will be held at the "Capital City" Sunday, July 23. "Assurances are given us that there will be fifteen hundred or more candidates," says Mr. McElhenny.

Tuesday morning McElhenny left for Cincinnati on official business for his lodge. He will return Friday evening.

"Redsnapper" Returns; Is Accused Of Robbery

Fred, better known as "Red Snapper" Smith, a cigarmaker, who drifted back into Portsmouth after an absence of several months was arrested on sight Monday evening.

Smith is charged with holding up and robbing Bill Bishop, a West End boilermaker, of $17 during the early part of March, he immediately skipping out. He and Bishop had been making the rounds of saloons together.

Suit Is Settled

A settlement out of court was effected in the case of Joseph H. Brant against Stanton and Frank Poole Tuesday, according to the finding of Judge Thomas. The suit was settled by the defendant and who paid the full amount asked in the action, amounting to $225. Banton and Banton represented the plaintiff and Frank W. Moulton, the defense.

Allegations Are Denied

William E. Spriggs in answer to the divorce proceedings filed by Birdie Spriggs, enters a sweeping denial to all of the allegations set forth in the petition. Theo. K. Funk represents the defendant.

Nettie Turner Appointed

Nettie Turner was appointed administratrix of the estate of Robert Lewis Tuesday in probate court. She furnished a $100 bond.

Guardian Reports

The fourth account of W. E. Anderson, guardian of the estate of Maggie M. Crawford, was filed in probate court Tuesday. The estate shows receipts amounting to $50,961.44 and expenditures of $12,385.00, leaving a balance of $48,576.44.

A large congregation witnessed the dedication of the new organ at Bigelow Sunday morning. The organ was presented to the church by...

taking Mary, the Mother of Jesus, as the "One Mother," comparing the careful, motherly women of the Jewish homes with the women of Greece and Rome during Bible days.

The music, both morning and evening, was greatly enjoyed by the large audiences and Mrs. Marcoulette's handling of the big new organ was masterly, delighting all with the beautiful combinations.

Dr. E. C. Jackson announced 589 present at Sunday school in the morning. The school continues to grow each week and the work of the church and Sunday school keeps increasing, the motto being, "To Help Others."

About fifty of the young girls were taken for a walk in the woods Saturday afternoon, walking as far as Mr. G. D. Selby's camp on Rosemont Road, where at 5:30 lunch was eaten and at 6 o'clock the men of the church came out in autos and brought the girls home. The girls work is in charge of Mrs. Ogier, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Purcell.

Thursday night, at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Wilbur Thornburn Mills will give a Discipline of the stomach, intestines, liver blood, skin, nerves, heart, spleen, rheumatism, sciatica, tapeworm, leg ulcers, weak lungs and those afflicted with long-standing, deep seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physicians, should not fail to call. Deafness often has been cured in sixty days.

According to their system no more operations for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, goiter, piles, etc., as all cases accepted will be treated without operation or hypodermic injection, as they were among the first in America to earn the name of "Bloodless Surgeons," by doing away with the knife with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment of these dangerous diseases.

No matter what your ailment may be, no matter what others may have told you, no matter what experience you may have had with other physicians, it will be to your advantage to see them at once. Have it forever settled in your mind. If your case is incurable they will give you such advice as may relieve and stay the disease. Do not put off this duty you owe yourself or friends or relatives who are suffering because of your sickness, as a visit at this time may help you.

Worn-out and run-down men or women, no matter what your ailment may be, call, it costs you nothing.

VILLA IS RAISING

The report recommends the amalgamation of the branches of American Methodism with the general conference as the supreme governing body of the church and with separate conferences and Episcopal supervision for the negro churches. The report was adopted amid scenes of unbounded enthusiasm. Only one speech was made in favor of the action and none in opposition. Rev. John F. Goucher, president emeritus of Goucher College, Baltimore, Md., in moving the resolution, said that the church was in a position to do great things. The report was adopted by a large majority. Down Go Reds

The Reds continued to lose. They dropped the third straight to the Phillies Monday, the score being 7 to 1. The Reds were out of sync and the Phillies were in perfect form. The game was a real battle, but the Phillies came out on top. The Reds will be looking for a better performance today.

FINE OFFENSIVE TEAM

Has Portsmouth developed another clever offensive team? It really begins to look that way. In the first six games, Portsmouth has scored 28 runs to their opponents' 12 and 8 to 1.

Huntington Boosters Again Wallop Maysville Cublets

Maysville, Ky., May 16.—The Huntington Boosters batted two pitchers off the rubber here Monday, winning eight to two and making it two straight off the Maysville club. While his team was boasting its batting average, Pitcher Gaffin was keeping the Maysville bats scattered despite his wildness. He allowed but two hits during the matinee. It was Huntington's game from the third inning when three runs crossed the plate. The score:

Old Time Slugging Match Finally Won By Frankfort

Charleston, May 16.—After Harry McCluskey, the former Cincinnati pitcher, who joined the Senators Sunday, had caused an even dozen men to strike out in the first six innings Monday, he worked in the seventh and was worse than even in the eighth when he was relieved by Mr. Huffman who finished badly and gave the visitors a victory after ten innings of the hardest game staged here since the opening. The final score was 11 to 1. The game was a see-saw affair. The score:

the family, do you send the family a wedding announcement or just to the one you know well? THANK YOU.

Just send the announcement to the one you are acquainted with.

Dear Dolly Wise.—Is a girl of 15 old enough to go with the boys? If not so, please give advice. How is my writing? SCHOOL GIRL.

You are too young to go with the boys. Study your lessons now and when you are through school you might go around with the boys once in awhile.

Dear Dolly Wise.—Please print in next issue. Can a wife inherit her husband's estate if she remarries, and has no children, and who would be the nearest heirs, and how much is a woman entitled to and can she sell property and do with the money as she pleases? ANXIOUS READER.

Your question is not clear. If a man dies leaving no will, and no children, his wife inherits his estate. I don't know what you mean by re-marrying. If you are divorced you cannot hope to inherit your divorced husband's estate. It would go to his brothers and sisters or nearest relatives if he had no wife or children. If you are his widow and remarry, you would get his property just the same unless otherwise mentioned in the will.

Dear Miss Wise.—Is it proper to meet boys on the street? DAISY.

You can't walk up and down street without meeting a few boys.

Dear Miss Wise.—Please name the fourth wedding anniversary? WANT-TO-KNOW.

Fourth wedding anniversary gifts are fruits and flowers.

Dear Miss Wise.—Please give me a remedy for perspiring hands. My white kid gloves are a perfect sight. DORA.

Excessive perspiration of the hands is due to nervousness. You should try fresh air exercise, cold water externally and internally and plenty of sleep to improve the condition of your nerves.

SOCIETY

The Trinity Young Women's Missionary Society held an enjoyable meeting last evening at the home of Miss Edith Royce, on Second street, where there were twelve members present. Miss Rose Kiefer gave an interesting reading. Delegates to the convention to be held in front of June 2nd were elected, as follows: Miss Bertha Gamberline and Miss Sarah Miller, delegates, and Miss Verena Graham and Miss Alice Pray as alternates. Refreshments followed the business. Miss Bertha Gamberline will be hostess at the next meeting.

The following party enjoyed a motor trip to Portsmouth on Sunday, having dinner at the Washington hotel, and later a drive on the lake to Chillicothe. Mr. and Mrs. C.

R. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Holton and children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Golen, Mrs. Maude Dudley, Mrs. R. D. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McCoach, Mr. G. A. Northcott.—Huntington Herald-Dispatch.

Alkali Makes Soap Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulched coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Gift Things For June Brides and Graduates

The matter of gift selection is easy in our store. You are surrounded on all sides with helpful suggestions.

There are silver tableware sets and individual pieces, clocks, ornamental bronzes, cut glass, etc., appropriate for wedding gifts.

For the boy or girl graduate there are bracelet watches, lavenders, brooches, cuff links, scarf pins, etc., equally appropriate.

Everything right in style and price.

The Holmes Club members are planning for an outing on May 27th.

Dr. Edwards' STRENGTH TONIC

This Tonic which Dr. Edwards recommends is designed to restore strength to the weak, strength to the muscles, strength to the mind and strength to the nerves.

It is given to restore to the blood that rich red color which every weak and run-down person must have before he can get well and strong.

That Natural Ruddy Color Of good health is absent in cases of thin, weak and run-down patients. Their cheeks, lips and eyelids lack that normal blood tint, and the feeling of well being is not with them. Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic restores the color to the blood, drives away that sickly greenish pallor of the complexion and supplies fuel for the vital fire in weak and thin people.

Nervous Patients

Dr. Edwards says patients are nervous because they do not have enough rich, red blood to feed the nerves. So he made this Tonic to give the blood just what it needs for that purpose.

Sugar Coated Tablets

Dr. Edwards has his Tonic put in a sugar coated tablet so it will be pleasant to take and will not injure the teeth. Pale, thin, weak and run-down people contract diseases more frequently than well ones. They are liable to have Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Bright's Disease, Nervous Dyspepsia, Insanity, Fevers and Consumption.

Don't Have These

Why not put yourself in shape not to have these diseases by letting Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic help you out of your nervous and run-down condition? It will build you up right from the start by increasing your appetite, toning up the nervous system, enriching the blood and increasing your vital force. For sale by your druggist.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walters and sons, Charles and Arthur, and daughter, Mary, motored to Chillicothe Sunday in the Walters car and spent the day with relatives and friends.

STORE OPEN THIS EVENING Mrs. Carter Brown's mid-season Millinery Sale starts today. Store open this evening.

Mrs. Moses Lehman has returned from a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mess, of Cincinnati, who accompanied her home to spend this week.

The Official Board of the Home for Aged Women entertained the inmates at the Home at lunch last Saturday at noon, after which the regular business meeting was held.

Mrs. W. W. Donaldson and Mrs. Philip Hise came home today from Columbus, where they have been visiting Mrs. Hise's sister, Mrs. A. B. Barlow.

Miss Grace Morris, of Highland avenue, delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon with two tables of five hundred, complimentary to Miss Sybil Powell, of Jackson, guest of Miss Ethel Doerr. The guest list included Misses Sybil Powell, Ethel Doerr, Violet Cunningham, Katherine Halderman, Louise Micklethwait, Imogene Matthews, Anna Morris and Mrs. Everett Drew. At the end of the game delicious refreshments were served at the card tables.

Next Tuesday evening a deferred meeting of the Holmes Club will be held at the home of the Misses Edith and Clara Burke, on New Sixth street.

Relatives in Portsmouth have received invitations to the Washington Court House Commencement exercises. Mr. Ronald Dick, son of Mrs. Roy Brown, will be graduated with highest honors.

WOMEN IN CHARGE OF PRAYER MEETING

The prayer meeting of the Sciotoville Baptist church Wednesday night will be rather unique as it will be in charge of the Ladies' Bible class of which Mrs. Alfred Moore is the teacher.

WHY DANDRUFF CAUSES BALDNESS

Some Facts That All Men and Women Should Learn Before It Is Too Late

Get rid of dandruff if you have it and the sooner the better. Dandruff causes baldness by choking the pores of the scalp so that the hair roots do not obtain proper nourishment.

There is one delightful hair tonic so compounded that besides immediately ending itching scalp and quickly stopping hair from falling, will remove every particle of dandruff after just a few applications.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of Parian Sage, a hair beautifying, tonic and scalp invigorator that as every druggist knows always produces results. Thousands of women use it because nothing else makes the hair so soft, abundant, radiantly beautiful and fascinating. Wurster Bros. always guarantees Parian Sage.

Will Take Depositions Judge Thomas C. Beatty appointed O. E. Irish, Ironton, commissioner to take the depositions of E. E. Corn and Elizabeth Warneke as witnesses in the will of Cecilia C. Warneke.

Just One Application and the Hairs Vanish

(Toilet Talks) Any woman can keep her skin free from unsightly hair or face if she will follow these simple instructions: When hairy growths appear, apply a shave paste, made by mixing some water with powdered talcum. Apply this to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a harmless treatment, but be sure you get the real delatone.

Excursion Next Monday

Monday afternoon and evening May 22, the Steamer Home Smith, will conduct excursion out of Portsmouth under the auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose, Peerless No. 762. This will be the last trip this huge excursion steamer will make out of Portsmouth this season.

REPUBLICAN CLUB WILL ELECT OFFICERS TONIGHT

This evening at seven-thirty o'clock, the Scioto County Republican Club will convene at the club rooms, Gallia street, to consider the election of permanent officers. The nominating committee composed of Harry W. Miller, Fred N. Tynes and Charles W. Wilson will submit a complete list of officers for the approval of the club. But one ticket will be placed on the ballot. The election of permanent officers will be one of the important events in the history of the organization. Following the permanent organization, the club will hold frequent meetings to arrange for debates, smokers, talk fests, marching clubs, glee clubs, and summer outings.

Donned Old Clothes To "Trap" Bootleggers But State Inspectors Made Fruitless Search

Donning old clothes to throw off suspicion that they were state troopers, four inspectors disguised themselves through the North End Sunday and made a determined but unsuccessful attempt to round up a gang of bootleggers, who have infested that section for sometime, according to the inspectors.

While the inspectors disguised themselves in tailored and torn garments and tried to look like they had 75 cents and were looking for some of "the old stuff" that glows and jingles, they failed to round up a single bootlegger, the word having evidently been passed along that state inspectors in the guise of "Knights of the Ties" were about to appear upon the scene.

If there were any bootleggers in the North End Sunday the inspectors failed to "uncover their tracks." In discussing their mission of this section one of the men stated Monday that it was a "water haul."

They visited all the so-called "wet spots" in the North End, trooped up and down a number of alleys and snoop around for three or four hours but they failed to flush a single illicit bottle of booze.

These inspectors also called on the local Aerie of Eagles Sunday and inspected their methods of handling refreshments. They were shown around by Custodian Reuben Smith and the locker plan followed by members was explained in detail. Each member has a locker of his own and keeps such articles in it as suits his fancy.

The inspectors stated that they were investigating the various clubs of southern Ohio and would be in this section for some time.

THE NEWEST REMEDY FOR BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM AND DROPSY

Kidney, Bladder and Urine Acid troubles bring misery to many. When the kidneys are weak or diseased, these natural filters do not cleanse the blood sufficiently, and the poisons are carried to all parts of the body. There follow depression, aches and pains, heaviness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness and rheumatism. In some people there are sharp pains in the back and loins, distressing bladder disorders and sometimes obstinate dropsy. The uric acid sometimes forms into gravel or kidney stones. When the uric acid affects the muscles and joints, it causes lameness, rheumatism, gout or sciatica. Write Dr. Pierce at once, send 10 cents for large trial package, or 50 cents for full treatment of "Anuria" or ask your druggist for it.

Digestion of uric acid is meat eaten, and even from some vegetables. The poor kidneys get tired and backache begins, absorbed into the system from

Pythian Lodge Started In Growing East End

Massie Lodge No. 115, Knights of Pythias conferred the Page rank upon sixteen members of the new Peerless lodge which will be established in the East End, Monday evening at an interesting meeting, held at the K. of P. hall, Third and Chillicothe streets. In all there are thirty-four candidates for the new lodge, but only sixteen appeared. Arrangements will be made to hold a class Thursday afternoon at which the first and second degrees will be conferred upon those who failed to attend Monday.

Tuesday evening Massie and Magnolia lodges will jointly confer the Esquire rank and on Friday evening Magnolia will have charge of the Knight rank.

The establishment of an East End lodge Knights of Pythias has long been considered and planned. The new lodge, after receiving the ceremonies of initiation, will open a lodge room at the Brady hall, East End.

Following the ritualistic work, plans were discussed for the coming summer months. The local K. of P. lodges are arranging a series of out-door entertainments which will extend throughout the summer.

This is a good time to take "Anuria," the new discovery of Dr. Pierce for kidney trouble and backache. Neglected kidney trouble is responsible for many deaths, and Insurance Company examining doctors always test the water of an applicant before a policy will be issued. Have you ever set aside a bottle of water for twenty-four hours? A heavy sediment or settling sometimes indicates kidney trouble. The true nature and character of diseases, especially those of the kidneys and urinary organs, can often be determined by a careful chemical analysis and microscopic examination—this is done by expert chemists of the Medical Bureau. You wish to know your condition? Send a sample of your water to Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and describe your symptoms. It will be examined without any expense to you, and Doctor Pierce or his Staff of Assistant Physicians will inform you truthfully.

Prosecuting Attorney And Si Straus Favor Greater Bd. Of Trade

"A Greater Board of Trade, to which every business and professional man in the city and county belongs is something that would be a great benefit to Greater Portsmouth," said Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait while giving his views on the question: "Why Portsmouth should have a Greater Board of Trade." "This organization composed of the influential men of the community will co-operate with other cities in the Portsmouth-Huntington district, and will foster home industries."

"Portsmouth should have a Greater Board of Trade for many reasons. It should be a greater organization to assist in the development of the city and co-operate with the farmers toward attaining maximum crops and maximum markets with minimum efforts. It should plan and effect a parking system for the city. It should foster local industries, aid in the expansion of them and assist new industries to locate here."

"There is one great move I would like to see a Greater Board of Trade foster, and that is the incorporation lines of the city proper extended from the Ohio river on the south to the Boulevard on the north and from the Scioto river on the west to Wheelersburg on the east. New Boston, Sciotoville and Wheelersburg should be incorporated into the city for they are now facing the need of new schools and are taxed to the limit."

"Anything that is spelled with a 'Boost for Portsmouth', you can sure consider my name on the roll," declared Si Straus, when asked for his opinion of a Greater Board of Trade. "This movement for a greater organization is something that should have been promoted long ago. Every business man should become a member so that he might add his influence and efforts to the organization."

"We owe the material growth of the city to the activities of the Board of Trade. But there is yet much work to be done. The city is on the threshold of an industrial era, as Frank Knauss says, and it will require a greater organization to cope with the situations that will arise."

"I want to see a greater organization which will co-operate with the farmers, will foster home industries, induce new manufacturers to locate here, open undeveloped resources in the county, build up a river terminals, boost the good road movement, mother a new traction line up the Scioto valley, and accept every opportunity to do those things which will mean a Greater Portsmouth."

Efficient Use of Gas In The Home

Each consumer should know where the meter is and how to close the meter cock. In case of a serious leak, any open flame which may ignite the GAS should be extinguished, the doors and windows should be opened to allow free ventilation; and, if possible, the GAS should be shut off at the meter. GAS is generally at a comparatively low pressure and almost any adhesive substance will stop a leak temporarily. Never look for a GAS leak with a match or other open flame. Make a strong suds with soap and warm water and apply to the pipe joints where the leak is supposed to be. Small leaks, which could not be found with a match, can be located in this way.

Never fail to notify the Gas Company of a gas leak.

Free Text Books Endorsed; Labor Day Plans Progressing

At the meeting of Central Labor Council Monday night, a resolution was unanimously passed endorsing the movement being conducted by the Jr. O. U. A. M. for free text books in Ohio.

A committee was named to look after the label agitation being stirred up in the River City. Goods bearing the union stamp should be purchased by union men, Central Labor Council declared last night. Endorsement of the benefit show to be given by the Carpenters' Union on May 24 and 25 was given at this meeting. Tickets are on sale for the benefit.

John Virgin was obligated as a delegate from the Brewery Workers' Union.

The Labor Day committee reported progress and stated that Portsmouth this year will witness the greatest Labor Day celebration in its history. Unions within a radius of 100 miles of Portsmouth have been invited to take part in the Labor Day festivities here, which will continue for a week and will be held in Millbrook park.

The Queen contest promises to be an interesting event and many contestants no doubt will enter it.

K. Of C. Minstrel Will Be Presented This Evening

Tickets are going rapidly for the Knights of Columbus minstrel entertainment to be held at St. Mary's school hall tonight, and all indications point to a splendid crowd.

"Persons troubled with business cares or the 'blues,' should not fail to take advantage of the excellent opportunity afforded for having such eliminated from their systems. A whole evening of fun and amusement is assured by the splendid program that has been arranged. Dan Collins, a past master as an entertainer and one of the most clever comedians in the city, will be a whole show in himself. Many Assault Cases Heard Before Mayor

With the victim's wife as the only witness against them, Mayor H. H. Kaps considered the evidence against William Prior, charged with assaulting Oscar Siskles at the street fair grounds a week ago as insufficient at the hearing of the case Monday night. He accordingly reserved his decision both as to Prior and John Sals, who was with him, and against whom charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct had been preferred.

Nonah Gray, of Earlytown, who was charged with assaulting his half-sister, Etta Gray, was dismissed upon payment of costs. Gray and his wife complained about neighbors smugling them by applying names to them. There has been a regular uproar at the head of New Ninth and New Eighth streets for some time past, say the police, and they had planned to summon all of them into court, but the filing of the affidavit against Gray upset plans and caused most of them to be used as witnesses instead of appearing as defendants.

William Brooks was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. The evidence showed that after dropping his hat during a fight with Roy Mitchell, on Scioto street, he ordered Mitchell to pick up the hat, and while he was thus engaged, kicked him.

Holly Whitman was fined $10 and costs for assaulting Charles Dixon, a millwright, at the street fair grounds. They had trouble over some girls. Dixon, who was charged with fighting, was dismissed.

Roy Hill pleaded guilty to drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He went to the Pentecostal Mission on Front street after his wife, and in trying to grab her by the arm, grabbed her by the hair instead, he said. He was fined $10.

The case of Clarence Paul for assaulting his wife, Malinda Paul, was held open, the affidavit to hang over him pending good behavior. The couple are separated, each having one of their children in custody.

The charge against Ralph Marting for speeding an automobile was dropped, having been adjusted out of court at the instance of the mayor.

REGULATE THE STREET FAIRS

Judging by the number of people who have personally, by telephone or by letter approved of the stand taken by The Times in regard to street fairs and carnivals, we should say that restrictive measures would meet with the almost unanimous approval of the public here. Those who have communicated with us have been a unit in declaring that these fairs are a detriment to any community, that there is nothing elevating about them, that they have a general demoralizing influence. Why, as one man pointed out, there is never a carnival that comes to town but what attempts to operate a variety of gambling devices or has a "Black Tent" show with indecent exhibitions that have to be suppressed by the police. There are a few really good street fairs but the great majority are not of such a character that they should be tolerated in progressive communities. Portsmouth had a sort of continuous performance of street fairs last year. From the looks of things it is going to be worse this year and it looks like the city council should take up the matter in order to protect the city, her young people and her business men from the threatened invasion. The way to do it is to put a license on the carnivals and put it high enough that the fly-by-nights cannot afford to come into town.

The time to act is right now when the season is young and before contracts have been made that will cause local backers to feel that they have been discriminated against.

AND NOW THE SOLDIERS

As our fighting experience has been confined to that of rear guard on a Rugby foot ball team we can scarcely pose as a military strategist, or expert, though long experience in the newspaper business may have made us a critic, if not fit for even that. That isn't, however, getting at the point, which is just now vexing us, and which is this: Congress having voted we shall have a peace-footing army of 206,000 men or thereabouts, we want to know how it is to be swelled to that and where the soldiers are to come from? The present peace strength of the army is fixed at approximately 100,000. It has been found impossible under the voluntary enlistment plan to maintain a force within twenty per cent of the maximum. From this it is apparent the absolutely voluntary plan of enlistment offers scant promise of recruiting anywhere near the basis fixed, and that either the service must be made more attractive to bring in the material or some form of compulsory service must be devised. So unless the whole scheme of preparedness blows over, congress is going to find itself in a most serious dilemma to provide the forces as conscription, which will not bear equally and alike upon all will prove most furiously unpopular and desperately hard of enforcement.

Sitting in his sanctum up at Wellston Colonel John D. Littlejohn has been casting envious eyes at our cooking school that came to such a glorious ending last Friday afternoon. Like a true son of Kentucky the Colonel has no use for the befrilled and furbelowed style of cookery. He wants his'n straight, right from the —we almost slipped a cog there—oven. He wants beef and pork and mashed potatoes and boiled ham and greens and hog jowl and pigs feet and other plain food. When he gets steak he wants it called steak not by some French name. If he bankers for pigs feet he wants them to come before his famished eyes as pigs feet not with a German name tacked on. We sympathize with the Colonel. So will most men. But that is as far as we can go. We can't change the cooking or the serving if we tried and unlike the Colonel we have never tried.

Holy Redeemer congregation is making another record in financing that ought to afford a wholesome lesson to the community at large. Beginning with the year each member of the congregation was asked to give only a nickel each week towards a fund for building a new school. It was announced, this week, that this nickel fund had passed the $2,000 mark.

Out in the bounding and abounding West, they are swelling some. Wheat came through the winter in fair stand, the corn land was never in better shape and plowing further advanced. Cattle and hogs were never better conditioned, nor commanding higher prices, pastures are luxuriant and in every respect the goose hangs high.

May be thrift is going to become the national habit. The Newport News Press notes that the negroes of its city are among the most prosperous people in the Old Dominion and they are steadily increasing their savings, as shown by the report of the Crown Savings Bank, conducted and patronized solely by colored people, which is one of the solid and growing financial institutions of the city. It is a familiar fact that since last November the school children of Portsmouth have laid up thousands of dollars in a building association.

The president of Yale says, having in mind his particular own, that what this country needs is young men of independent means in conduct of its public affairs. Possibly so, but heretofore it has been the trouble that the fellows of independent means have had much to say from the outside how the shelling should be run.

THE OPENING OF ANOTHER POPULAR SEASON

THE TREE OF GOLD

Probably, the biggest poplar tree in the whole region of the Ohio valley, was cut down, sawed and marketed near Whitesburg, Kentucky, last week. It measured ten feet in diameter and from the ground to its first limb it snared almost three hundred feet into the sky. Ten big teams were required to snake the logs out from it down the mountain side. It made 12,700 feet of first class lumber and 6,000 of other grades, or nearly 19,000 feet in all. The tree sold for $760 as it stood and on the Cincinnati market, to which it was shipped, its product brought more than $2,000.

Senator Harding, who is to temporarily preside over the national Republican convention, is of the opinion that the demand of the Bull Mooseers that it shall nominate some one now or heretofore of the Progressive party, is calling upon the tail to wag the dog. It looks more every day, however, that the dog is going to have just that experience and Senator Harding will be hop-scotching around right lively to keep in time with the convulsions of the tail.

Bombay, in far India, spent only three million dollars to pipe water to itself from a waterfall ninety miles away. Were it run like in Cincinnati it would have paid around five hundred millions for the same job.

West Virginia papers are ragging over the question of "elastic conscience." From reading them on political matters, it is our firm conviction they know nothing about that or any other sort of a conscience.

Ah, we have it. The Russian Bear and the Terrible Turk have simply been liberating through the winter. Just read the diverse and conflicting stories that come from the Caucasus battle line.

The United States Steel Corporation announces that for the third time this year it has broken all previous records in the iron industry. Good as the news is there are some people who do not like to hear it with a campaign coming on.

Fair woman is not to be denied. The supply of kid running low, men are now killing white whales in the Arctic seas and bringing their skins home so they may be tanned and made into white shoes.

Things political are so far away that not even the most venturesome of journalistic prognosticators a prognostication as to when the G. O. P. will nominate for president.

The Marion Star can see nothing to the detriment of our good young governor in the fact that he ran a mighty poor second as a delegate to Chicago, and we can add, neither is it expected to. It would be neither polite nor politic seeing that its editor was the candidate that threw dust in the eyes of the good young governor.

We have a way of going at things wrong and foremost in this country. The universal demand is for better school buildings, when what is most needed is better schooling.

If the Methodist church lifts the ban of condemnation from dancing and card playing, as it has practically done, that is going to take away a large part of the stock in trade of the evangelist and the preacher who likes to be called sensational.

Feeling the remorse of indigestion the Springfield Sun waits that one trouble about accepting an invitation to dinner is that the average guest could have a better time at home.

Maybe one of the reasons why the weekly illustrated papers continue to wink out is because they devote so much space to "authorities" when, so far as the great outside world is concerned, the species has about disappeared, or can be seen any time in the movies.

Do candidates realize how short is getting the time in which they must qualify for the primaries.

BedTime Tales

Do You Like To Mend?

Do you like to mend broken things? Or are you like most folks and think mending is a great bore and a waste of time? Have you ever tried to sew on a button or stitch up a tear in your frock or darn a hole in your stocking? It's great fun, no matter what the grown folks say, and you should try it some day for yourself.

And while you are mending, remember that you are doing a job that everybody has to take a hand at. Yes, sir, even Mother Earth herself does mending, and, moreover, you will have to learn to be very skillful to beat her at her trade!

What's that? Didn't you know that Mother Earth did mending? Of course she does—beautiful mending, as you can see for yourself if you only look.

Get out your bag of marbles and look them over, or your stone that you use when you play hop-scotch. See the streaks of different colored stone through the marble, or through the hop-scotch stone? Those streaks are the stitches Mother Earth used when she sewed together that rock. Think of that!

For, you must know, hundreds of years ago, those stones you play with were fastened in the ground with other stones, so tightly that you would have thought they never would have changed or come loose. But of course they did change—everything does. Perhaps a great glacier—a river of ice—crawled over the rocks and crumbled them apart; or maybe a mountain tumbled other rocks over onto them, and broke them into pieces.

Then along came Mother Earth with her mending basket and stitched them together again. The old rocks she has put all her finest white stitches you see so plainly, gems and her gold and her silver. men call white quartz and it is so hard that the bits of it are safer in the rocks she has rock, once mended, are as good as worked so hard to get in order, new again. Isn't that wonderful? Tomorrow—Mrs. South Wind's Story

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, May 16—A frail, studious and serious-looking young man is causing a hub-bub in Wall Street. He has gone down there to do a bit of muck-raking on his own hook—bearing the lion in its den, left on the table, it will be given to us it were. His name is H. M. Munn and for some time he has been the financial editor of a New York newspaper.

He began to see certain things that didn't strike him as being exactly on the square with the investor or he said so several times with the result that he found himself clasped in several perspiring conferences with some big brokers. They threatened many things, but he tenaciously clung to his purpose and just now he has opened up a suite of offices at 66 Broadway—in the heart of the Money Belt—and is continuing his bombardment.

He is sending broadcast news to investors informing them what to steer away from and how to take the sting out of their stock purchases. He believes the Bulls and Bears in some instances are not on the square with the "goats"—His term of the glib investor, "Wall Street," he says, "is not so bad as it is painted. But there are certain things that need correcting, and no one seems to have the nerve to tackle it. I've been down here a number of years and I'm spending a little money to force a lot of them to behave. In the end they will thank me."

Smash! Another blow for the tipping evil. A new cafe has opened on upper Broadway which puts a ban on tipping in plain words. This is how the sign reads: NO GRATUITIES.

On a shipment from Maine to South America of $185 worth of potatoes the freight was $1,400, and yet some friends of the farmer whose fondness rises above the boiling point at voting time, can't sleep at night because of fear that competition from Argentina will put every horny handed son of the soil out of business.

Patrons are requested not to give tips to employees. They cannot accept them. A liberal wage scale assures you of their best service. If, contrary to this request, money be left on the table, it will be given to charitable institutions.

And contrary to precedent the new restaurant is doing a mighty nice business. Several times waiters have politely refused the tips. If they accept them they are immediately discharged.

The sum of $7.31 a week will buy food enough for a family of five in New York City. Experiments carried on during the last two years by the social service department of the Beth Israel hospital have furnished the city with this conclusion.

Sample menus and lists of supplies are offered—all based on the carefully worked out theory that father needs about 3,000 calories of heat energy every day, mother can manage with 2,500, while the kiddies will thrive on from 1,200 to 1,600 each.

It would seem that New Yorkers are to be watered and fed like a plant. Very few people will want to provide or cater on the caloric basis. For as Remond Wolff remarks, he wouldn't know a caloric if one bit him on the ankle.

Alas! The poor actor has no place to go. "Clear the curb" is the new police order to Broadway policemen and Thespian are being turned out of their summer offices in droves. It's a rough life for an actor at best, but to have to be chased up and down the Gay White Way with a night stick is no nice way to treat an artist.

Ex-Governor Glenn of North Carolina, dropped in on New York the other day and delivered the prediction that New York would be dry in ten years. He says that New York state should model after Kansas. Of course the newspapers treated the whole thing as a joke, but there are many who believe him.

AKRON RESTAURANT SLID INTO HOLE AS IT COLLAPSED; 9 DEAD

BLASTING IN EXCAVATION ON AN ADJOINING BUILDING IS BELIEVED THE CAUSE

Akron, May 16—At least nine were killed and twenty-two injured here last evening when the Crystal restaurant, located in the old Beacon-Journal building, at Main and Quarry streets, its foundations weakened by the blasting in the excavation for the erection of a building just north of it, collapsed and slid into the huge hole in the ground.

Nine are known to be dead, all of them having been identified. Twenty-two lie injured in hospitals.

Three persons, one a man, the father of a child killed in the wreck, another man and a woman are missing.

Until late at night, last night, firemen and police, surrounded by a packed mass of citizens, who flocked to the scene from every corner of the city, worked in the wreckage hunting for other bodies of persons hurt. Then, with the search not yet abandoned, city and county authorities began an investigation. Sensational reports of the nearby blasting were received by Coroner Lyon and County Prosecutor Kennedy. An inquiry will be held today and the grand jury, now in session, may begin an inquiry. The entire property loss in the disaster is estimated at $25,000.

Two hospitals were filled with the dead, dying and injured within two hours after the disaster. In one hospital are two men who went insane from the horror of their experience in the disaster.

LIST OF DEAD IN CRASH OF BUILDING AT AKRON

Akron, O., May 16—The list of identified dead follows:

William C. Lawson, 486 Woodland avenue, Akron.
H. W. Ramey, 357 East Buchtel avenue, Akron.
Rev. D. S. Thomas, Cumberland, Md.
Blanche Kline, Mansfield, Ohio.
C. A. Tompkins, 1669 Jonathan avenue, Cincinnati.
Mary Lawson, 486 Woodland avenue, Akron.
Mrs. Ed. Gallup, Cambridge, Ohio.
Dorothy Kenyon, 21, Akron, Ohio.

VETERANS TO MEET AT MARION

Marion, O., May 16—Colonel George B. Christian, general chairman of the executive committee, has announced the complete program for the golden jubilee encampment of the Ohio G. A. R. and the Thirty-fifth annual gathering of the Sons of Veterans, department of Ohio, beginning here June 12.

The encampment parade will be held Thursday afternoon, June 15.

Among those speaking during that week will be United States Senator Warren G. Harding, Governor Frank B. Willis, General Isaac R. Sherwood, Commander-in-chief F. R. Monfort, of the G. A. R., and A. E. Stephens, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans. Forty-five thousand visitors are expected.

HOUSE PASSES GLASS RURAL CREDIT BILL

Washington, D. C., May 16—Rural credits legislation was a long step nearer enactment today because of passage by the house late yesterday of the Glass bill by a vote of 295 to 10. Difference between this bill and the bill already passed by the senate will be ironed out in conference.

Both measures would provide for a federal farm loan board and twelve land banks which would loan money to farmers at a six percent maximum rate through local land associations on mortgages running from five to 25 years.

These banks would make these mortgages basis for issuance of farm loan bonds. Under a rule limiting general debate to five hours and providing for a final vote Friday night, the house today began consideration of the administration shipping bill.

House Democratic leaders apparently are confident of the passage of the ship bill.

American Citizens.

In practice there is no such thing as a "citizen of the United States." Such "citizen" is about as mythical as the mermaid. In order to vote, for instance, one must bring his citizenship down to the concrete and become a citizen of New York or of some one of the other states. You cannot vote in New York unless you are a citizen of New York, and the same is true of all the other states. The "citizen of the United States" is a very vague gentleman.—New York American.

ORPET ON TRIAL FOR MURDER OF HIGH SCHOOL GIRL

Chicago, May 16—Examination of witnesses in the trial of W. H. Orpet, Wisconsin University student, charged with the murder of Marion Lambert, Lake Forest high school girl, late in February, was continued today at Waukegan. Three men were tentatively accepted as jurors yesterday, the first day of the trial. Judge Charles H. Donnelly, before whom the case is being tried, expects to decide today whether Orpet's lawyers can examine 60 letters which passed between the accused and Miss Lambert.

THE SENATE REJECTS RUBLEE FOR FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Washington, D. C., May 16—Reconsideration of the vote by which the senate late yesterday refused to confirm George Rublee, of New Hampshire, as a member of the Federal Trade Commission, was discussed as a possibility today by supporters of the nomination. Senator Hollis, of New Hampshire, who led the fight in behalf of confirmation, is in a position to move for reconsideration since he changed his vote in order that he might do so.

The rejection of the nomination was regarded a victory for Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, who for almost a year and a half had fought Mr. Rublee in the face of vigorous administration support on the ground that he was "personally obnoxious" to him.

GERMANS BOMBARD FRENCH POSITIONS

Paris, May 16—The bombardment of the French position in the Avonport wood and about Hill 304 continues, according to the French official report issued today. EXPLOSION TOLL IS 14

Gibbstown, N. J., May 16—At least 14 men were killed and about 30 injured in a terrific explosion at the repauno plant of the Du Pont Powder Company, near here yesterday. The blast occurred in the building in which Trinitrotoluol is manufactured, and wrecked that structure and three others.

Some of the injured were taken to a hospital in Camden and other places, while about a score, who suffered minor wounds, were treated by physicians at the powder plant.

PLOT OF OUTBREAK AGAINST AMERICANS FOILED BY ARRESTS

U. S. BORDER TOWNS SAFE OFFICIALS BELIEVE

Washington, D. C., May 16—American communities along the Mexican border now are safe from further raids similar to that at Glenn Springs, administration officials were confident today. They indicated that with additional United States troops and national guardmen being distributed along the border, only a general Anti-American outbreak beyond the border, Carranza soldiers participating, could endanger American border towns.

Kingsville, Texas, May 16—Jose M. Marin, former Villa army officer and alleged leader of a proposed uprising of Mexicans in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, now in jail here, probably will be taken to San Antonio tomorrow for a preliminary hearing, according to United States officers.

Twenty-seven men in all, it was said today, are held in jail here in connection with the alleged plot. Arrests continue in the cases, according to federal officers, and it is believed all of the leaders in the movement will be arrested before tonight. The proposed outbreak, it is alleged, originally was set for May 10, but before this date Marin was arrested.

REGULATE THE STREET FAIRS

Judging by the number of people who have personally, by telephone or by letter approved of the stand taken by The Times in regard to street fairs and carnivals, we should say that restrictive measures would meet with the almost unanimous approval of the public here. Those who have communicated with us have been a unit in declaring that these fairs are a detriment to any community, that there is nothing elevating about them; that they have a general demoralizing influence. Why, as one man pointed out, there is never a carnival that comes to town but what attempts to operate a variety of gambling devices or has a "Black Tent" show with indecent exhibitions that have to be suppressed by the police. There are a few really good street fairs but the great majority are not of such a character that they should be tolerated in progressive communities. Portsmouth had a sort of continuous performance of street fairs last year. From the looks of things it is going to be worse this year and it looks like the city council should take up the matter in order to protect the city, her young people and her business men from the threatened invasion. The way to do it is to put a license on the carnivals and put it high enough that the fly-by-nights cannot afford to come into town.

The time to act is right now when the season is young and before contracts have been made that will cause local backers to feel that they have been discriminated against.

AND NOW THE SOLDIERS

As our fighting experience has been confined to that of rear guard on a Rugby foot ball team we can scarcely pose as a military strategist, or expert, though long experience in the newspaper business may have made us a critic, if not fit for even that. That isn't, however, getting at the point, which is just now vexing us, and which is this: Congress having voted we shall have a peace-keeping army of 206,000 men or thereabouts, we want to know how it is to be swelled to that and where the soldiers are to come from? The present peace strength of the army is fixed at approximately 100,000. It has been found impossible under the voluntary enlistment plan to maintain a force within twenty per cent of the maximum. From this it is apparent the absolutely voluntary plan of enlistment offers scant promise of recruiting anywhere near the basis fixed, and that either the service must be made more attractive to bring in the material or some form of compulsory service must be devised. Soundless the whole scheme of preparedness blows over, congress is going to find itself in a most serious dilemma to provide the forces as conscription, which will not bear equally and alike upon all will prove most furiously unpopular and desperately hard of enforcement.

Sitting in his sanctum up at Wellston Colonel John D. Littlejohn has been casting envious eyes at our cooking school that came to such a glorious ending last Friday afternoon. Like a true son of Kentucky the Colonel has no use for the befrilled and furbelowed style of cookery. He wants his straight, right from the—well almost slipped a cog there—oven. He wants beef and pork and mashed potatoes and boiled ham and greens and hog jowl and pigs feet and other plain food. When he gets steak he wants it called steak not by some French name. If he hankers for pigs feet he wants them to come before his famished eyes as pigs feet not with a German name tacked on. We sympathize with the Colonel. So will most men. But that is as far as we can go. We can't change the cooking or the serving if we tried and unlike the Colonel we have never tried.

Holy Redeemer congregation is making another record in financing that ought to afford a wholesome lesson to the community at large. Beginning with the year each member of the congregation was asked to give only a nickel each week towards a fund for building a new school. It was announced, this week, that this nickel fund had passed the $2,000 mark.

Out in the bounding and abounding West, they are, swelling some. Wheat came through the winter in fine stand, the corn land was never in better shape and plowing further advanced, cattle and hogs were never better conditioned, nor commanding higher prices, pastures are luxuriant and in every respect the goose hangs high.

May be thrift is going to become the national habit. The Newport News Press notes that the negroes of its city are among the most prosperous people in the Old Dominion and they are steadily increasing their savings, as shown by the report of the Crown Savings Bank, conducted and patronized solely by colored people, which is one of the solid and growing financial institutions of the city. It is a familiar fact that since last November the school children of Portsmouth have laid up thousands of dollars in a building association.

The president of Yale says, having in mind his particular own, that what this country needs is young men of independent means in conduct of its public affairs. Possibly so, but heretofore it has been the trouble that the fellows of independent means have had much to say from the outside how the shebang should be run.

THE OPENING OF ANOTHER POPULAR SEASON

THE TREE OF GOLD

Probably, the biggest poplar tree in the whole region of the Ohio valley, was cut down, sawed and marketed near Whitesburg, Kentucky, last week. It measured ten feet in diameter and from the ground to its first limb it soared almost three hundred feet into the sky. Ten big teams were required to snake the logs out from it down the mountain side. It made 12,700 feet of first class lumber and 6,000 of other grades, or nearly 19,000 feet in all. The tree sold for $760 as it stood and on the Cincinnati market, to which it was shipped, its product brought more than $2,000.

Senator Harding, who is to temporarily preside over the national Republican convention, is of the opinion that the demand of the Bull Moosers that it shall nominate some one now or heretofore of the Progressive party, is calling upon the tail to wag the dog. It looks more every day, however, that the dog is going to have just that experience and Senator Harding will be hop-scotching around right lively to keep in time with the convulsions of the tail.

Bombay, in far India, spent only three million dollars to pipe water to itself from a waterfall ninety miles away. Were it run like in Cincinnati it would have paid around five hundred millions for the same job.

West Virginia papers are ragging over the question of "elastic conscience." From reading them on political matters, it is our firm conviction they know nothing about that or any other sort of a conscience.

Things political are so far awry that not even the most venturesome of journalistic prophets dares a prognostication as to whom the G. O. P. will nominate for president.

The Marion Star can see nothing to the detriment of our good young governor in the fact that he ran a mighty poor second as a delegate to Chicago, and we can add, neither is it expected to. It would be neither polite nor politic seeing that its editor was the candidate that threw dust in the eyes of the good young governor.

We have a way of going at things wrong end foremost in this country. The universal demand is for better school buildings, when what is most needed is better schooling.

If the Methodist church lifts the ban of condemnation from dancing and card playing, as it has practically done, that is going to take away a large part of the stock in trade of the evangelist and the preacher who likes to be called sensational.

Feeling the remorse of indignation the Springfield Sun wails that one trouble about accepting an invitation to dinner is that the average guest could have a better time at home.

Maybe one of the reasons why the weekly illustrated papers continue to wink out is because they devote so much space to "actorines," when, so far as the great outside world is concerned, the species has about disappeared, or can be seen any time in the movies.

Do candidates realize how short is getting the time in which they must qualify for the primaries.

BedTime Tales

Do You Like To Mend?

Do you like to mend broken things? Or are you like most folks and think mending is a great bore and waste of time? Have you ever tried to sew on a button or stitch up a tear in your sock or darn a hole in your stocking? It's great fun, no matter what the grown folks say, and you should try it some day for yourself.

And while you are mending, remember that you are doing a job that everybody has to take a hand at. Yes, sir, even Mother Earth herself does mending, and, moreover, you will have to learn to be very skillful to beat her at her trade!

What's that? Didn't you know that Mother Earth did mending? Of course she does—beautiful mending, as you can see for yourself if you only look.

Get out your bag of marbles and look them over, or your stone that you use when you play hop-scotch. See the streaks of different colored stone through the marble or through the hop-scotch stone? These streaks are the stitches Mother Earth used when she sewed together that rock. Think of that! For, you must know, hundreds of years ago, those stones you play with were fastened in the ground with other stones, so tightly that you would have thought they never would have changed or come loose. Sure, of course they did change everything does. Perhaps a great glacier—a river of ice—crawled over the rocks and crumbled them apart; or maybe a mountain tumbled other rocks over onto them, and broke them into pieces.

Then along came Mother Earth with her mending basket and likes to mend. For into her mending stitches you see so plainly, gems and her gold and her silver, men call white quartz and it is so. Perhaps she thinks her valuables hard and so solid that the bits of are safer in the rocks she has rock, once mended, are as good as worked so hard to get in order, now again. Isn't that wonderful? NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, May 10—A frail, studious and serious-looking young man is causing a hub-bub in Wall street. He has gone down there to do a bit of muck-raking on his own hook—bearding the lion in its den, as it were. His name is H. M. Mann and for some time he was the financial editor of a New York newspaper.

He began to see certain things that didn't strike him as being exactly on the square with the investor and he said so several times with the result that he found himself closeted in several parloring conferences with some big brokers. They threatened many things, but he tenaciously clung to his purpose and just now he has opened up a suite of offices at 66 Broadway—in the heart of the Money Belt—and is continuing his humbly-minded.

He is sending broadcast news to investors informing them what to steer away from and how to take the sting out of their stock purchases. He believes the Bulls and Bears in some instances are not on the square with the "goats."—This term of the gullible investor. "Wall Street," he says, "is not so bad as it is painted. But there are certain things that need correcting, and no one seems to have the nerve to tackle it. I've been down here a number of years and I'm spending a little money to force a lot of them to behave. In the end they will thank me."

Smash! Another blow for the tipping evil. A new cafe has opened on upper Broadway which puts a ban on tipping in plain words. This is how the sign reads: "NO GRATUITIES."

On a shipment from Maine to South America of $485 worth of potatoes the freight was $1,400, and yet some friends of the furor whose fondness rises above the boiling point at voting time, can't sleep at night because of fear that competition from Argentina will put every horny handed son of the soil out of business.

Patrons are requested not to give tips to employees. They cannot accept them. A liberal wage scale is sure you of their best service. If, contrary to this request, money be left on the table, it will be given to charitable institutions.

And contrary to precedent the new restaurant is doing a mighty nice business. Several times waiters have politely refused the tips. If they accept them they are immediately discharged.

The sum of $7.31 a week will buy food enough for a family of five in New York City. Experiments carried on during the last two years by the social service department of the Beth Israel hospital have furnished the city with this conclusion.

Sample menus and lists of supplies are offered—all based on the carefully worked out theory that father needs about 3,000 calories of heat energy every day, mother can manage with 2,500, while the kiddies will thrive on from 1,200 to 1,600 each.

It would seem that New Yorkers are to be watered and fed like a plump. Very few people will want to provide or enter on the caloric basis. For as Remond Wolff remarks, he wouldn't know a caloric if one bit him on the ankle.

FATALLY HURT TEN HOURS AFTER TAKING A CAMP JOB

C. W. Allsbrow Falls In Front Of Dinky Train, Death Result From Injuries; Car Passed Over His Body

Death in tragic form came to C. W. Allsbrow, 39, brakeman on a dinky train in the Hunt, Forbes, C. & O. Northern Construction Camp near Harrisonville, Monday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock just ten hours after he had taken employment in the camp.

The fatal accident was one of the most distressing that has taken place in the C. & O. Northern camps for some time. Allsbrow fell under the wheels of the dinky cars and suffered injuries that resulted in death several hours later.

Allsbrow was riding on the end of a dinky car and when the train made a sudden stop Allsbrow was thrown from his place on the car to the tracks. Before the train could be stopped several of the small cars had passed over his body. His right hip and right arm were crushed and his right side was badly bruised and he suffered internal injuries. His left foot was also severed.

Fellow employees rushed to his assistance and pulled his mangled body from underneath the cars.

Many Assault Cases Heard Before Mayor

With the victim's wife as the only witness against them, Mayor H. H. Kaps considered the evidence against William Prior, charged with assaulting Oscar Sickles, at the street fair grounds a week ago as insufficient at the hearing of the case Monday night. He accordingly reversed his decision both as to Prior and John Seth, who was with him, and against whom charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct had been preferred.

Noah Gray, of Earlstown, who was charged with assaulting his half-sister, Etta Gray, was dismissed upon payment of costs. Gray and his wife complained about neighbors annoying them by applying names to them. There has been a regular uproar at the head of New Ninth and New Eighth streets for some time past, say the police, and they had planned to summon all of them into court, but the filing of the affidavit against Gray upset plans and caused most of them to be used as witnesses instead of appearing as defendants.

William Brooks was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. The evidence showed that after dropping his hat during a fight with Roy Mitchell, on Scioto street, he ordered Mitchell to pick up the hat, and while he was thus engaged, kicked him.

Molly Whitman was fined $10 and costs for assaulting Charles Dixon, a millwright, at the street fair grounds. They had trouble over some girls. Dixon, who was charged with fighting, was dismissed.

Roy Hill pleaded guilty to drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He went to the Pentecostal Mission on Front street after his wife, and in trying to grab her by the arm, grabbed her by the hair instead, he said. He was fined $10.

The case of Clarence Paul for assaulting his wife, Malinda Paul, was held open. The affidavit to hang over him pending good behavior. The couple are separated, each having one of their children in custody.

The establishment of an East End lodge Knights of Pythias has long been considered and planned. The new lodge, after receiving the ceremonies of initiation, will open a lodge room at the Brady hall, East End.

Following the ritualistic work, plans were discussed for the coming summer months. The local K. of P. lodges are arranging a series of out-door entertainments which will extend throughout the summer.

Those receiving the Page rank Monday evening were: Harry Birtly, Edward Kanouse, L. B. West, Willy Dyer, Theo. K. Buner, Charles H. Jackson, Thomas McCarty, William S. Hanes, Ralph Brady, Albie Campbell, Charles E. Martin, Glenn C. Brady, Robert H. Cook, E. N. Brady, Fred T. Bish and L. Double, of Otway.

Mme. Olga Petrova in "What Will People Say"

Columbia Today

Mme. Petrova, the foremost emotional actress of the stage and screen, who is being starred in Metro wonder plays, will be seen on the screen here at the Columbia today in "What Will People Say?" an interesting, compelling five-part feature, produced by the Popular Plays and Players. In this feature, the original of which was written by Rupert Hughes, the famous dramatist and novelist. Mme. Petrova has found the best vehicle ever provided her in motion pictures. She is supported by an unusually strong cast, which includes Fritz de Lint, Fraunie Frannholz, William Morse, Charles Dungan, John Dudley, Zedat Burbank, Marilyn Reid, Eleanor Sutter, Jean Thomas and other well known stage and screen stars.

Mme. Petrova has won an enviable position in the realms of the silent drama since making her debut under Metro auspices. She has been starred in such notable productions as "My Madonna," "The Vampire" and "The Heart of a Painted Woman," on the Metro program.

John Barrymore in "The Lost Bridgroom"

Everybody has laughed at the popular comedian, John Barrymore, but it is safe to say you have a bigger laugh than ever in store for you when you see John in the last of his clever comedies "The Lost Bridgroom" at the Lyric today. It's funny all the way, just crowded with a wealth of humor, ridiculous situations and thrills enough to make a real drama. It's John Barrymore at his best so don't miss it. Holbrook Blinn in "The Unpardonable Sin" which comes to the Lyric on Wednesday is one of the most elaborate society features ever made.

Old Fashioned Social Tonight

All is in readiness for the "old fashioned" social to be held by the Jr. O. U. A. M. in their hall, Fifth and Chillicothe streets, tonight. A large number of tickets have been sold, and this social promises to be the best attended of the social already held. On Wednesday evening, May 24, the order will give a moonlight excursion on the steamer Peerless.

Prosecuting Attorney And Si Straus Favor Greater Bd. Of Trade

"A Greater Board of Trade, to which every business and professional man in the city and county belongs is something that would be a great benefit to Greater Portsmouth," said Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait while giving his views on the question: "Why Portsmouth should have a Greater Board of Trade." "This organization composed of the influential men of the community will co-operate with other cities in the Portsmouth-Huntington district and will foster home industries."

"Portsmouth should have a Greater Board of Trade for many reasons. It should be a greater organization to assist in the development of the city and co-operate with the farmers toward attaining maximum crops and maximum markets with minimum efforts. It should plan and effect a parking system for the city. It should foster local industries, aid in the expansion of them and assist new industries to locate here."

"There is one great move I would like to see a Greater Board of Trade foster, and that is the incorporation lines of the city proper extended from the Ohio river on the south to the Boulevard on the north and from the Scioto river on the west to Wheelersburg on the east. New Boston, Sciotoville and Wheelersburg should be incorporated into the city for they are now facing the need of new schools and are taxed to the limit."

"Anything that is spelled with a 'B' for Portsmouth," you can sure consider my name on the roll," declared Si Straus, when asked for his opinion of a Greater Board of Trade. "This movement for a greater organization is something that should have been promoted long ago. Every business man should become a member so that he might add his influence and efforts to the organization."

"We owe the material growth of the city to the activities of the Board of Trade. But there is yet much work to be done. The city is on the threshold of an industrial era, as Frank Knauss says, and it will require a greater organization to cope with the situations that will arise."

"I want to see a greater organization which will co-operate with the farmers, induce new manufacturers to locate here, open undeveloped resources in the county, build up a river terminals, boost the good road movement, mother a new traction line up the Scioto valley, and accept every opportunity to do those things which will mean a Greater Portsmouth."

REPUBLICAN CLUB WILL ELECT OFFICERS TONIGHT

This evening, at seven-thirty o'clock, the Scioto County Republican Club will convene at the club rooms, Gallia street, to consider the election of permanent officers. The nominating committee composed of Harry W. Miller, Fred N. Tynes and Charles W. Wilson will submit a complete list of officers for the approval of the club. But one ticket will be placed on the ballot.

The election of permanent officers will be one of the important events in the history of the organization. Following the permanent organization, the club will hold frequent meetings to arrange for debates, smokers, talk-fests, marching clubs, glee clubs, and summer outings.

There are nine, hundred and twelve members enrolled and several new ones are expected. Within the next few weeks, the county precincts will be canvassed for new members.

CHURCH PLANS DISPLAY

The preliminary sketch of the handsome new Fourth street Methodist church which will be erected on the Hilltop this summer is on display at the Marting Dry Goods store. The building is a stately brick gothic church well designed with spacious rooms.

His Painful Specialty.
 "My second cousin, Perry Perry, for years kept a series of diaries," related H. H. Harsh, "and had a habit of producing and disproving thereby almost every reminiscence that was uttered in his presence. He seemed to feel that it was his duty to do so. His funeral was the largest ever held in the neighborhood where he had resided, people coming for many miles to pay their last tributes of respect to a conscientious man and to see for themselves that he absolutely was dead."—Kansas City Star.

Strange Storehouses.
 In the old birds' nest that are placed near the ground in shrubs and small trees close to hazelnut bushes and bittersweet vines one will often find a handful of hazelnuts or bittersweet berries. They were put there by the white footed mice and the meadow mice, which visit these storehouses regularly. Very often a white footed mouse will cover a bird's nest with the dried grass and inner bark and make a nest for itself. —New York Tribune.

Misunderstood.
 "Throw up your hands."
 "What's this, some new system of physical culture?" —New York Press.

Monday evening from Columbus, where he attended an interesting meeting of the Columbus Boosters' Club. Arrangements were made at this meeting for the state-wide class initiation, which will be held at the "Capital City" Sunday, July 23.
